Exchange Of People Brings Special Services To Baptist Church

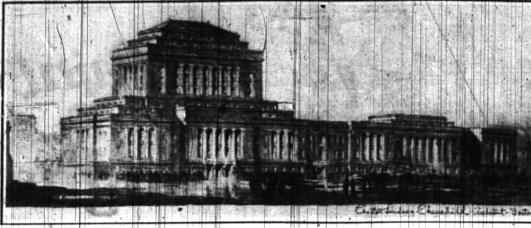

Four prominent Baptist ministers in churches of greater Detroit have been engaged to give a series of Sunday evening sermons in Birmingham, starting next Sunday, through an exchange of pulpits with Rev. David Leon Woodward, pastor of the Birmingham Baptist Church.

COSTS MOUNT IN WIDENING

(Continued from Page 1, Part 2) Woodward has already amounted to $3,091,456.37, and additional costs are expected to bring the total to $4,047,456.67.

Construction work on the project is expected to cost the State Highway Department $3,310,010.33, of which $2,625,010.33 has already been spent.

New Christian Science Publishing House

BOSTON, Mass.—Continued growth of the activities of the Christian Science Publishing Society has necessitated expanded facilities. The new building, which will be completed in the near future, is being designed by the architect Chester Lindsay Church.

The building will be made for the needs of The Christian Science Monitor, The Christian Science Journal, The Christian Science Sentinel, and all other literature published by the Society.
