Broadway has it "in for" bridge. Showmen say popularity of bridge is keeping people out of theaters. For theater ticket-broker, situation is becoming "bridge of sighs."

Re Hollywood

Hollywood—is just a hicktown for all its sophistication. Here are few reasons why: one of its boasts is champion horse-shoe pitching team. Right in heart of village can be found horse-trough and wind-mill. Rabbits and coyotes frequent streets. And when it comes to whispering tales about other folk's business, it's just another Main Street. And Hollywood admits it.

Movies Need Cops

Spare cops and lose props is less son learned by Hollywood. Annual police bill for studio protection is more than $500,000 for uniformed men only. Large force of plain clothes men is also on guard against theft of props, whispering of state secrets and signs of anarchism. One studio claims to have cut loss of about $200,000 per annum to virtually nothing by employing the law in big quantities.

"Final" Is Disturber

"Five Star Final," newspaper play now in the movies which shows tabloidia at its worst, is causing editorial eruptions of moment, according to variety. Showman's Bible. Variety says: William Randolph Hearst has issued orders for his papers to condemn "Final." Scripps-Howard rags are lauding it, and New York "News," world's biggest tabloid, has received order from publisher to clean up in anticipation of blanked effect which will make scandal sheets pure as New York Times."
