Barnum P. T. A. To Entertain At Bridge Teas

Mrs. Charles E. Plumstead is the general chairman for a series of bridge teas to be given by the Parent-Teacher Association of the Barium Intermediate School. The first two of the series will be held this week, the first at the Community House Thursday at 2 P. M., and the second at the home of Mrs. Frank Smith of Lincoln avenue, Friday, at the same hour. Assisting as hostesses at the Thursday tea will be Mrs. Arthur C. Becke, Mrs. L. H. Wilson, Mrs.

George W. Forester and Mrs. Earl H. Cunningham. This party will be held in the Boy Scout room, and as it is for the public, those wishing to attend are requested to notify Mrs. Plumstead or one of the hostesses. Assisting Mrs. Smith at her home will be Mrs. Walter Huffman, Mrs. John C. Murphy, and Mrs. F. A. Franklin.

Later in November, Mrs. D. T. Tate and Mrs. J. H. Rosso will be joint hostesses at a third bridge tea, sponsored by the Barium P. T. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mack of Puritan road were weekend guests of Mr. Mack's sister and brother-in-law, Mrs. and Mrs. James T. McMahon in Chicago.

Fair play demands prompt payment!

LIT LADY: Today is the tenth I must pay my bills.

SUD LADY: Oh, no hurry!

LIT LADY: Yes, there are credit hours take us our word when they give us credit. Pay! Pay! demands payment of bills when due.

SUD LADY: You're honest and will pay some time. But fair play is a point of promptness rather than of honesty.

LIT LADY: Creditors take you at your word, and give you the credit that places you in good social standing. It's up to you to keep your promise.

and pay your bills when due. You'll never know true peace of mind until you form this worthy habit. Otherwise bills fret and fuss until at every turn and creditors look their trust in you.

Send for helpful little booklet, "How to Use Credit to Your Best Advantage." It adds to the pleasure of buying and releases worry about bills.

From A WOMAN'S ANGLE

By MARJORIE ELAINE PORTER

Yes, there is a Santa Claus! A man whom every mother should remember in her prayers, is Louis Reberg.

He is a middle-aged man, who lives simply in a townhouse in Detroit. But as a benefactor of the handicapped, he is doing far more than the "santa" of a "party" at the girls' expense.

Dr. Elizabeth Brunl, honorary surgeon to the Princess of Piedmont, who, before her marriage, was the Princess Marie Jose of Belgium, frequently performs seven operations a day.

Dr. Brunl enjoys the dual distinction of being one of the most beautiful women and skilled surgeons in Rome.

I saw in the paper that Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth is to be "boomed" for vice-president of the country.

(And when Vice-President Curtis went home and told his sister, what did Dolly do?)

The Princess Cantacuzene is reported to be coming to America to visit Russia last summer. Her official O. K. for Russia is an affront to womankind.

Mr. Reberg pledged his earnings to a school for crippled children, which the city is not now educating. The gift was made after Mr. Reberg learned he was losing his sight, and after making a visit to a school for crippled children. Before he leaves for the south, Mr. Reberg will provide shoes, clothing and crutches for children in need.

The spirit of St. Nicholas, who in German legend, showered gifts upon the unfortunate, and particularly upon children who were crippled or needy seems to dwell within the kindly heart of Louis Reberg.

And how comes the "50-50 club"? As its name implies, this club is a money-saving organization. A group of men students of the University of Southern California have organized a club with the understanding that girls accepting invitations from its members agree to pay half the expenses of the date.

From one point of view, obviously that of the club's, why should a college man, who is not self-supporting, assume the entire expense of an evening's entertainment, when the girl doesn't contribute a dollar?

On the other hand, wouldn't such a plan encourage extravagance, and tend to destroy rapidly the entire sense of responsibility in young men?

Wouldn't it be better if college men made girls understand that what they couldn't afford was "out"?

Is it "old stuff" to adopt a "he-man" attitude, and say "no" and "quit"?

Local Singers To Appear In Recital

A miscellaneous program of songs by Mrs. Susan Rice Oliver and Frederick A. Protheroe will be presented at an open meeting of the Thursday Musical at the Community House Thursday, Nov. 12, at 10 A. M.

Mrs. Oliver, who is a soprano, will sing English and German songs, including "Mid-October Swan" by Hallstrom, "Black Swan" by Smith, "Canvasser" by "The Shower", "Exaltation" by Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, "In Der Nacht", "Frühlingslied", "Nachgesang" by Richard Frank, and "Spinnereien", a German folk song.

Mrs. Protheroe will sing three groups of songs, English, French and German. His repertoire will include "The Shower", and "Requiem" by Zekwer; "La Chanson de la Cloche" and "Impression" by Fauriel; "Mors", and "Mors" by Strauss, and "Abade" from the Opera "Le Roi s'Amuse" by Lalo.

Mrs. Oliver and Mrs. Protheroe will also sing several duets, "Destiny", "The Parting", "The Silk and Band", and "The Last Wish" by Dvorak. Mrs. Gail Fairchild Bangs will be the accompanist.

Miss Josephine Blomah of Detroit, who is a member of the faculty of the Art Center Music School, will play a group of violin solos, accompanied by Mrs. Edgar Bailey.

Mr. Lawrence Clark will be chairman of the day, and assisting hostesses will be Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Fred S. Galloway, Charles Connell and Mrs. Hoyt Galloway.

Social Briefs

Mrs. C. E. Botsford of Pine road, Bloomfield Village, will be hostess at a musical tea Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. The affair will be given for the benefit of Mrs. J. H. Rosso's group of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The program will include selections from "The Show Boat" by the Maddens, by May Strong, sung by a group from the chorus of the Thursday Musical, under the direction of Frederick A. Protheroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wise of Bloomfield Village will be hosts at an informal dinner party at their home Saturday evening. Their guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Allison, Mr. and Mrs. William McCallum, and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Harris.

Members of the Birmingham Business Women's Club will give a "Scottish" party at the Community House, Friday evening at 8 P. M. The invitation includes a request to wear sports or golf clothes and to be prepared to tell a Scotch story.

Mrs. Eugene Smith, Jr. is chairman of the ticket committee for "The Rainbow of the Rio Grande," a musical comedy to be presented under the auspices of the League of St. James Women, at the Community House, Nov. 19 and 20. The cast will include more than 100 members to be selected from the League and the church at large.

Mrs. D. I. Tate and Mrs. J. H. Rosso have announced Nov. 12 as the date of their bridge party which will be the third and last in the series sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association of the Barium Intermediate School. The affair will be held at the home of Mrs. Tate, Westchester Way.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Schermerhorn, Jr. of Ravine road with their sons, Hamme, III, and Billy, left Saturday for an extended southern journey. Their itinerary includes Louisville, Ky., where they will visit friends for six weeks; Greenville, S. C., and Florida as the final destination.

Mrs. Nancy Hayes of Brownell street was the week-end guest of her mother and sister-in-law, Mrs. and Mrs. William Carnichael, of Highland Park.

"ARISTOCRAT of the PASTRY KINGDOM"—Mince-meat Pie, ELECTROCHEF-Baked!

With the bracing fall season and its cool, tonic-like days, mince-meat pie again appears on the menu. And who, having tasted an ELECTROCHEF-baked mince-meat pie, would ever find the same enjoyment in a pie made in an ordinary oven?

Famous chefs for centuries have vied in baking the flaky, light crust and spicy, juicy goodness of the filling. You, with your ELECTROCHEF automatic oven and its gentle electric heat, can bake the same kind of pie in your kitchen. With the accurate ELECTROCHEF oven heat control, you can do it much more surely and easily, with no doubt as to the result. Uniform moist electric heat retains all the moisture in the mince-meat: It is just as juicy and flavorful when baked as it was when it went into the oven. The ELECTROCHEF oven makes baking easy and ends guesswork: Your light, flaky pie-crust will delight you! Treat your family to an ELECTROCHEF-baked mince-meat pie.

Has Your Kitchen Store These ELECTROCHEF Features?

1. A clean kitchen, a clean stove - no soot, no flames.
2. Cool cooking - summer and winter.
3. Full flavor cooking - no soot in food, no soot on walls.
4. Fast oven cooling - no baking disappointment.
