MY New York

By Central Press

NEW YORK.—When detestable Vincent Colucci, accused Harlem killer and Bronx beer baron, to throw up his hands, the gangster cried: "It is the law!"

That terrified exclamation suggests once more a new uneasiness sweeping a number of ridings. Police reporters tell me known crooks do not swagger with quite the boastful confidence of six months ago. Even the movies cannot keep James Aswell gangster's ego inflated and provided a new assurance of six months ago.

Know His Riots

They tell this story about William Tibbett, famous Western Tibbett, and father of Lawrence Tibbett, singing star. A riot broke out in a small town called Kera City, and the local constable wired Tibbett to send aid. In a short time Tibbett arrived. "What?" said the constable. "Just you, only one man?" "Well," answered Tibbett, "there's only one riot, isn't there?"—New York Morning News.

How You Must Have Suffered

"Hullo old man. Where have you been?" "I got back from a camping trip." "Loughing it, eh?" "Well, I've had my day out portable dynamite went on the bum, and we had no hot water, heat, electric lights, tea or coffee for almost two hours.—B. & M. Magazine.

Detective Work

It is easy to tell out-of-towners in the bright light area. People packed around window displays are almost always natives of Manhattan. People blocking traffic they gaze skyward at some architectural wonder are almost always ditto. People who take buses to Chinatown are, nowadays, 75 per cent residents of Greater New York. Outsiders know there is no Chinatown any more. Strange as it can be spotted because they are dressed neither in the manner of Paris midgets nor minstrel end men. And, though perhaps I am wrong, they seem to me to look healthier.

Lively Topic

At few gatherings recently conversation has veered to the comment of Miss Edna Ferber, the novelist, upon her arrival not long ago from a European holiday. She called American young

SMCKE DAMAGES

W. A. P. JOHN HOME

CHARGE OF DRUNK DRIVING IS DENIED

Slight damage by smoke was caused in the home of W. A. P. John, 556 Tooting Lane, by a fire Tuesday afternoon which started with grass in the gas stove oven. The blaze was confined to the oven, but the home was filled with smoke. Fire Chief Vernan Griffith reported.

DRUNK DRIVER FINED

George Conner, Dayton, R. D. 2, was fined $75 for drunk driving by Justice Floyd S. Book Tuesday morning, and a companion, Harry Lawrence, 131 Oliver street, Flint, was fined $20 for being drunk. They were arrested Monday night by Bloomsfield Hill officers after a chase which led to Square Lake road before Conner would stop.
