At the same time, however, I am convinced that not one of the 500 or so men and women who heard him will deny that he committed untold and dastardly crimes upon the English language. Nor do I believe they will deny that his grammatical shortcomings should be blamed directly upon his physical fatigue.

Tough On the Scribbles

Just there was the problem that confronted each of the newspaper reporters at the banquet, and just there is the solution for the fact that somewhat varying reports appeared in the public prints as to what Mr. Brucker had said.
