New York

By JAMES ASWELL

Have you ever seen a New York Playwrights and novelists are celebrating the tenth anniversary of their daily work in the brightly lit great hotels.

James Aswell, far, have been largely concerned with the antics. But within the staff of each of these skyscraper havens there are countless homes of laughter, just as there are in modest households.

He says: "To Mr. Ralph Hitz, manager of the Hotel New Yorker, came a letter not long ago from the managing director of Transcontinental Air Western Air, Inc. The epistle mentioned the installation of a new press service and went on in true press-agent style: 'How opportune! For this permits me to send you one of our best Ozark Tom Cats which I am sure you will find efficient in your store room.' 'I am quite confident that an interchange of cats will prove mutually beneficial as the change of environment and subsequent interbreeding ought to produce a cat which will strike fear into the heart of any mouse.' 'Mr. Hitz lifted an eyebrow and flicked a speck from his huge grackle. It takes imagination to picture a cat which will strike fear into the heart of any mouse. Nevertheless, two days later an immense and markedly ungracious crate was delivered into the manager's office. Inside paced a beast proportioned like a small tiger and hid black. He hissed at his new friends. He hissed. The entire staff was thrown into confusion.

Preston Allen, Attorney for Mortgage, 107 Howard St., Michigan, Royal Oak, Michigan. Oct. 9, 1931.
