Many Birmingham folk were also observed at the club on Labor Day, when they participated in the mixed two ball foursome held in the afternoon.

Modes of Past and Present To Be Worn In Style Show

Arranged as mannequins in the latest creations, members of St. Margaret's Guild of St. James Episcopal Church, will reflect the prevailing mode in sports, afternoon and evening gowns when, on the afternoon of Sept. 18, the Guild presents the Style Parade, sponsored by the League of St. James Women, at the Community House.

Among the Guild members who will serve as models are Mrs. Jane Wall, Mrs. Donald Bay, Mrs. C. C. Hood, Mrs. Holland Coven, Mrs. O. L. Andrews, Mrs. C. C. Heintzler, Mrs. Reginald W. Rose, Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth, and Mrs. H. E. Middleton.

In addition to the fashion parade displaying styles of today, the pages of fashion history will be turned back to reveal the modes of various periods in the past. Mrs. Forsyth, who is arranging for the present of old-fashioned gowns, has secured a number of gowns worn by prominent members of local families back in the days when they were newly arrived in the metropolis. These will also be displayed by members of the Guild as models.

MEET THE PRESIDENTS

Mrs. Bessie McMechan, as new president of the Thursday Musicals, announces an interesting program for the year.

Music in Birmingham means the Thursday Musicals, it has, ever since that day five years ago when three of Birmingham's musically inclined luncheoned together to discuss the possibility of organizing a group to further interest in music locally.

As a result of this informal meeting Birmingham has today an organization of 150 women devoted exclusively to the cause of bringing more and better music to the village.

Mrs. Bessie McMechan, who was elected president of the society at the annual meeting in the spring, will preside over the activities of the organization's fifth season.

Lived Here 7 Years

Mrs. McMechan came to Birmingham four years ago, and a finger became interested in and a member of the Thursday Musicals. Previously she had lived in Detroit where she studied voice culture at the Detroit Institute of Musical Art. She had also, while residing here, studied her art in Paris.

In Birmingham, she makes her home with her 11-year-old son, Jerry, on Pilgrim road. Assisting her in the office of the Thursday Musicals this year will be Helen H. Gardner, treasurer, Mrs. H. J. Springham, secretary, Mrs. H. J. Springham, secretary, Mrs. H. J. Springham, secretary, Mrs. H. J. Springham, secretary.

The Oakland County Council of Women will meet at the Community House Tuesday at 10 A. M.
