"It bothers everyone that has to come to town Tuesday to see just what the state tax commission's plans are," said Charles J. Shain, chairman of the Property Owner's Relief Fund of the Birmingham Real Estate Board, yesterday.

PARRY NAMES RELIEF GROUP

Committee Will Attempt Co-Ordination Of Welfare Agencies

Correlation of the work being done by various welfare agencies in the village with a view to eliminating overlapping or conflicting work was the purpose of a meeting yesterday afternoon in the office of Supervisor Perry.

THREATENS INJUNCTION

He looked with alarm on the fact that the commission's representative, even before the hearing, would be able to complete their review here in a single day.

THREATENS INJUNCTION

He based his belief that the new valuations would be considerably higher than those at present on the fact that in other townships where the state tax commission has already held its reviews, increases have been made from 25 to 300 per cent.

THREATENS INJUNCTION

Considerable aid in defense of the present assessment rolls at Friday's session is expected to be offered by the Property Owner's Relief Fund, which will have a month ago, at the request of the Board, appointed a special committee for this purpose.

THREATENS INJUNCTION

Possibility that the state tax commission may be persuaded to abandon its intention of placing its new valuations on this year's tax rolls grew up at the meeting of the Board of Supervisors Monday when a committee was appointed to wait on the commission with a plea that the process of placing the new figures on the books would delay the collection of taxes so long as to seriously narrow the normal functions of school and governmental agencies.
