Local Lions Club Cited For Service

In a letter received here from Melvin Jones, founder and secretary-general of Lions International, the Birmingham Lions Club was commended on the work which it accomplished during the past year.

Mr. Jones states that, in his annual report to the International Convention of Lions Clubs held in Toronto Canada, last month, he was happy to be able to include and give recognition to the part the local club played in the association's program of service.

The local club's record, as taken from Mr. Jones' report to the convention, is as follows: "Birmingham—Sponsored Business Conference, conducted by University of Michigan (Glee Club). Assisted church in producing a play. Ninety membership cards received; nine on time. One Key Member in club."

OBITUARY

WILLIAM A. BASSETT Funeral services were held at 2 P. M. Monday for William A. Bassett, 44 years old, who died Friday morning at his home on Fourteen Mile road from an attack of acute asthma. He had been ill only three days.

A life long member of this community, Mr. Bassett was the son of Sarah Erby and John W. Bassett, Oakland County pioneer. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Irene Bassett, and by nine children, Lawrence, Jay, Kathryn, John, Henry, Mary, Roland, Allen and Florence, all at home.

The funeral was held from the S. O. Wylie Bell Home for Funerals, Rev. R. M. Atkins officiating. Burial was in Greenwood cemetery.

MRS. ELIZABETH EADE Funeral services were held Monday morning for Mrs. Elizabeth Eade, 88 years old, widow of the late Captain Alfred Eade, who died Friday at 3:20 P. M. at her residence, 1712 Oak street.
