

SOCIETY AT THE HILLS

Social Season Under Way As Golf Clubs Welcome Spring

Spring may be a trifle tardy in flinging out those "lacy banners" to herald her approach this year, but the positive indication of her arrival is the beginning of the golf season with the official opening of clubs in the neighborhood of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills.

Rebekah Lodge To Give Luncheon On Wednesday

The regular pot-luck luncheon and card party given by the Birmingham Lodge of Rebekahs on the first and third Wednesday of each month, will take place Wednesday afternoon, April 20, at the Knights of Pythias Hall at 1 P. M. Cards and luncheon will follow the luncheon.

DRESSES From Factory-to-You At Wholesale Prices $6.95

The Embury Methodist Church will present a sale of plants and flowers in conjunction with its annual Garden Party which will take place today and tonight at the church. Mrs. Jesse Bone will be in charge of the tea in the afternoon, and Mrs. Mabel Nostrand and the committee in charge of arrangements.

NUTS All kinds of imported and domestic nutmeats. Salted and unsalted. We roast and salt daily.

SPECIAL THIS WEEK! Old Fashioned Toasted Peanuts 29¢ Per LB. Fresh BARR'S HOUSE OF NUTS 161 West Maple 256 WEST MAPLE

At your Neighborhood Healy Shop

Posy Petal Shades in SPRING LINGERIE Pure Dye or French Finish Crepe GOWNS $2.95 In the adorably young style sketched, with creamy lace yoke, and satin ribbon shoulder bows. Petal pastels—all sizes and several other styles. French Finish Crepe SLIPS $1.59 Slim fitted lines under your spring frocks, or straight tailored style—all with dainty laces—in Spring pastel shades.

Tea For Solicitors Is Feature of Annual Roll Call

A social event of interest to those taking part in the annual roll call of the Community House will be the tea for solicitors at the home of Mrs. George T. Hendrie, Bloomfield Hills, Friday afternoon.

Colonial Play Will Be Presented By Literary Club

"A Dish of China Tea," a dramatic sketch of colonial days, directed by Elizabeth H. Neff, will be presented by members of the Women's Literary Club on Tuesday evening, April 19, at the Women's House, Tuesday at 8 P. M.

Birmingham Artists To Exhibit In Pontiac Show

Among the Birmingham artists whose work will be represented in the exhibit held under auspices of the Sketch Club of Pontiac, April 11-24, are Mrs. Thomas A. Turner, Mrs. John P. MacKay of Hazelwood avenue, and Miss Rosemary Thurber at present in New York City; and Mrs. Edgar A. Parks of Pierce street.

Speaking on "The New World Picture," Mrs. Miller said that voters to distinguish between the "patriotic" and the "patriotize" in the hairdressing candidates for any public office. "The patriot," Mrs. Miller explained, "is one who serves his country faithfully and loyally. The patriotize is he who appears to be serving his country, but is really fattening his own interests. We should measure all candidates carefully by this standard before giving them the vote."

Edward L. Kurth of West Maple avenue had as guests of the week-end, Mrs. George H. Foster, Jr., of Arlington Drive.

Miss Dorothy Faddis of Woodland avenue was made a pledge of Phi Sigma Pi Sorority at a meeting at the home of Miss Katherine Brown of Southfield avenue, Monday evening. Miss Marjorie Faddis, a sister of Dorothy, was pledged at the preceding meeting, and Mrs. Grace Hughes was pledged at a February meeting.

Mrs. T. M. Faddis of Woodland avenue, and her daughter, Miss Dorothy, have returned from Washington, D. C. to spend the week-end with the senior group of Baldwin High School.

Mrs. Warren S. Hillis of Vinewood avenue will be hostess for members of St. Margaret's Guild of St. James' Episcopal Church Tuesday for luncheon at 1 P. M. Assisting as hostesses will be Mrs. Carl Rupp, Mrs. William C. Salisbury and Mrs. Irving B. Babcock.

The junior and senior organizations of the World Friendship League, young people of the Methodist Episcopal Church, are active in missionary work, will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Miss Josephine Frank of St. Rose. Dr. Hawthorne Darby, medical missionary from the Philippines will be the guest speaker. Mrs. V. R. Marburger is leader of the senior group and Mrs. T. M. Faddis of the junior group.

Plans Announced for Summer Round-Up Of Pre-School Children In Health Drive

The opening event in Birmingham's summer round-up of pre-school children for health examination will be held at the Municipal Building May 2. The drive will be conducted by the local committee, assisted by all Birmingham physicians and dentists, and in co-operation with the Oakland County department of health.

Plans for the day include complete physical and dental examinations and recommendations for the correction of defects among the examining doctors. The dental examination will be added this year because of the cooperation of local dentists.

Church Society Will Hold Rummage Sale

Mrs. Walter L. Connelly of East Maple avenue is general chairman of a rummage sale to be held at the home of Mrs. E. J. Turner, 4140 East Maple avenue, on Sunday, April 17, at 3:15 P. M.

Carillon Recital

Christ Church Carillon, Sunday, April 17, at 3:15 P. M. William Hall Miner, Bellinester Grundle... Bach Deep River; Swing Low, Sweet Chariot; Organ Spirituals All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name; Softly now the Light of Day; He Leadeth Me; O Blessed Thought... Babbury Ave. Greg. Cranbrook School Hymn Organ Recital... 5:15 P. M. Greig (Peer Gynt Suite) Within a Chinese Garden... Vincent Nocturne Des Anges... Day

Mrs. Irving B. Babcock of Lone Pine street is chairwoman of the closing dance to be given by the Poor Richard Assembly at the Community House, April 22. Assisting as hostesses are Mrs. Warren S. Hillis, Mrs. E. F. Critton, Mrs. Hoyt Metzger, Mrs. D. C. Mills, Mrs. William C. Salisbury, Mrs. Bailey of Clawson. Eleven members were present. Following the regular business session, a supper was served. The next meeting will be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Terwilliger of Wallace street.

The Missionary Department of the Presbyterian Women's Union will meet Wednesday at the church. Mrs. Bell Ward will be in charge. The department program which is entitled "The Program and Mrs. J. R. Bell will direct the study program "Sons of Africa."

The Delphin Class entertained at a tea Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Harry Allen of West Maple avenue, honoring Mrs. Frank Trew who will leave soon to make her home in Arizona. Mrs. W. C. Hill poured. Adorning the tea table were a lace, Woodard, and now located in larger quarters at 535 N. Woodward near Harmon.

Mrs. S. F. Trumbull of Ridgeville avenue recently returned from Cleveland where she spent a week visiting Miss Mary Griffith at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Trumbull.

Mrs. and Mrs. S. F. Trumbull of Ridgeville avenue had as guests of the week-end, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. McConnell of Lansing.

The Maple Bridge Club will be entertained Friday at a bridge session at the home of Mrs. William A. McKinney at Brown street. Mrs. McKinney Sabom, Mrs. Tunis Mink, Mrs. T. B. Smith and Mrs. McChesney will be in charge of the luncheon.

The five divisions of the Presbyterian Women's Union met Wednesday with their newly elected officers making their reports at the weekly meetings. Group one with Mrs. Harry Allen as leader met at her home on West Maple avenue. Group two with Mrs. J. B. Beers as leader met at her home on Arlington drive. Group three with Mrs. N. Falge of Kennesaw drive as leader met at the home of Mrs. C. Pratt, Mrs. R. I. Correll and Mrs. E. S. Sargent. Group four with Mrs. P. H. Mellinger as leader, assisted by Mrs. C. Pratt, Mrs. R. I. Correll and Mrs. E. S. Sargent. Group five with Mrs. Evelyn Winborn as leader, met at the home of Mrs. E. S. Sargent of Dorchester road. Mrs. Otto F. Beier is president of the entire union.

Birmingham Party At State Convention In Battle Creek

A group from Birmingham including Mrs. Neill, Mrs. James Lee Oliver, Mrs. J. H. Boynton and Mrs. G. J. McMechan, left for Battle Creek Wednesday to attend the annual state convention of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs which opened on that day to continue until Saturday.

Of particular interest to Birmingham's today's program at the convention because of two prominent events in which local delegates from the Thursday Musicale will take part.

What a bargain! The Marguerite Salon will give a manicure, facial and eyebrow arch for $1.50 on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. For appointment 505.

Twelve years of satisfactory service stands for the work in upholstery and furniture repair done by Mrs. B. F. Brooks, 324 N. Woodward street. Her telephone number is 2431.

William M. Story, who is now cornering market on the Brick Bank Garage in Bloomfield Hills, will see that all your automobile servicing needs are met promptly, efficiently and economically.

To make friends welcome, brighten your guest room with a bedspread and draperies made by Mrs. Humphrey street, have your carpet cleaned and your floors, your floors and ceilings, you may rest content, knowing they will also keep your floors shining in your spring showers. Give them a ring at 1665.

Are you ready for golf weather? Let the Francis Studio, 619 Pierce street, (phone 2787) make you a tailored outfit for golf and tennis this season.

Discriminating in your choice of a permanent hairdo, the Powder Beauty Shop, Wakeek Building, is specializing in the Frederic Vita Hair or Standard. Call 670 for appointments.

In these days of economizing, have your house repaired at Dell's Hemstitching Shop, Levingston Building. For prompt service call 1145.

Your plants and flowers will live considerably longer if given the proper care. Teach your inspection through the Howard Bell greenhouses, 928 South Woodward street, to give you something of what "proper care" means.

Whether you want your walls tinted or papered this spring, the Home Decorating Company, 863 Knox street, can suit your taste at reasonable figures.

Any woman can afford a free shampoo and hair tangle (barrel) when she can get both for 75 cents at the Maybelle Beauty Shop, 102 Pierce street. Just call 904.

The first questions one asks about a fabric are, "Will it fade?" "Does it wash?" Claire Purkott, consulting decorator for interiors, Wednesday evening in Ravine road, (phone 2362) will show you charming sunfast and washable fabrics for draperies and slip coverings.

Take your spring sewing to Mrs. Elma Akerley, 132 N. Woodward street, phone 2375 for general alterations, remaking or tailoring at prices that will be satisfactory.

The Lee Chemical Company, distributor of water softener salt, formerly Lee's, Woodward, and now located in larger quarters at 535 N. Woodward near Harmon. When you think of Salt, Call 1645." Adv.

A Stanley Ross of Park street entertained at a bridge party Wednesday evening in honor of the birthday of Richard Fleming of West Maple road.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Olin of Wallace street will entertain their Tuesday evening at two tables of bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wermuth of Lakeview avenue entertained at a surprise dinner for 20 guests Tuesday evening in honor of the fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Tunis Mink of Pine Lake. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rose of Fort Wayne, Ind.

ABOUT TOWN

What are little sport hats made of? Wool that's light and soft and bright, you'll find them in any color at Hicks Hat Shop, 135 E. Maple avenue, for only $1.95.

The magician can take a rabbit from a hat, and like magic, Jeanne Wollaston, 101 E. Maple avenue, phone 396—can make a charming new frock from an old garment.

Another highlight on the program is the Michigan Composers' contest to be held in afternoon at the County Library Auditorium, under the direction of Mrs. S. A. Kessel of Pontiac. Mrs. Olin will be the vocal soloist on the program, offering four selections.

A group of piano solos, including "Cantata" by Joseph Hahn and "Prelude" by Johannes Sanford, will be given by Catherine Tinsman of Pontiac, who is well known in Birmingham musical circles.

Initial plans for the annual Poppy Day sale conducted by the American League were made at a meeting of the auxiliary committee of which Mrs. Harry H. Cannon is chairman, at the home of Mrs. E. W. Osborne on Pierce street, Thursday evening.

Among those who entertained Saturday evening following the third performance of "Paris Bound" by the Village Players were Mr. and Mrs. Stowe D. Baldwin of Rochester road and Mrs. Wm. William Laurence Shaffner of Wilminton drive, who entertained the cast and guests at the Friday evening for the young people in the parish included in the church school and attending Cranbrook and Kingswood Schools.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank L. Allen of Sunset terrace, Cranbrook, entertained at dinner Friday evening in honor of Prof. Paul J. Sachs of Harvard University, who later spoke on French art of the last century at the Cranbrook Academy of Art. Following the lecture, Mr. and Mrs. Allen invited about 30 guests to their home to meet Prof. Sachs.

Mrs. Thomas L. Thurber of Oak street was among the hostesses Tuesday afternoon at the tea given by the Detroit Society of Women Painters for those attending their 29th annual exhibit at Webster Hall, Detroit, which will continue until Saturday.

Little Cinema Theatre 56 E. Columbia rd., Woodward For One Week Only! Beginning Sat., April 16th The Sensation of Vienna, Berlin & London "A Waltz By Strauss"

The Romance of an Idol taken from the life of Johann Strauss, the immortal composer of waltzes. IDEAL! BEAUTIFUL! TOUCHING! With super-imposed English titles shown for the first time in Detroit featuring GUSTAV FROELICH

Con-111 N. Main. 35c Even. Sun. Hal. 50c. Child. 15c

Two pairs for $1.90 In the newest Spring shades and white. Other nice Mesh Hose at 79c

MESH AND LACE HOSE for Sportswear Genuine Full Fashioned... of fine imported Saxony yarns. $1.00 Pair

TWIN HOSEIERY SHOP N. Woodward Avenue

Abospure AERATED DISTILLED WATER and Now... Abospure

MINERAL SPRING WATER For table use... and for the correct making of good coffee and tea to retain the intended flavor, you will discover that the demands of the most critical "You'll-try-it-You'll-like-it"

SOLD IN BIRMINGHAM THROUGH SFIRE BROS. MARKET 180 West Maple Ave. Phone 1262

Kingswood Dinner To Precede Joint Recital

Dr. Katharine Rogers Adams, principal of Kingswood School Cranbrook, will be hostess at a dinner at the school Saturday evening preceding the concert to be given by Mrs. Georgia Bakerville and Cameron McLean, in Kingswood auditorium.

Dr. Adams' guests will include Mrs. and Mrs. George G. Booth, Mrs. and Mrs. Eliot Saarinen, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Marquis, Mrs. Bakerville, Gera Maroti, Mrs. McLean and Mrs. Mabelle Mabel. Both Mrs. Bakerville and Mr. McLean are widely known throughout Michigan musical circles. Mrs. Bakerville is a member of the faculty of the Conservatory of Music of the Ypsilanti State Normal College, as an instructor of piano. Mr. McLean is a prominent baritone.

Members of the Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church Cranbrook will give a dance in the Guild hall Friday evening for the young people in the parish included in the church school and attending Cranbrook and Kingswood Schools.

Oriental Rug Importers K. MAGARIAN

1579 Jefferson Ave., East 1022 Off Road and Tapestry Cleaning and Repairing by Native Weavers LUCILLE S. MACAULEY Birmingham Representative 208 E. Brown St. Phone 2655

MESH AND LACE HOSE for Sportswear

Genuine Full Fashioned... of fine imported Saxony yarns. $1.00 Pair

TWIN HOSEIERY SHOP

N. Woodward Avenue

Abospure AERATED DISTILLED WATER

For table use... and for the correct making of good coffee and tea to retain the intended flavor, you will discover that the demands of the most critical "You'll-try-it-You'll-like-it"

SOLD IN BIRMINGHAM THROUGH SFIRE BROS. MARKET

180 West Maple Ave. Phone 1262

Wilson P. Lyons Real Estate & Insurance

290 N. Woodward Birmingham 972