Score Of Birmingham Students Return Home From Ann Arbor For Spring Recess

The largest contingent of students from Birmingham attending one school returned this week from the University of Michigan to spend the spring recess with parents and relatives at home.

The group includes between 25 and 30 young men and women who are continuing their education at the state university. Although a few are visiting friends elsewhere, the majority are in Birmingham.

Among the students are Winifred and Marian Quaron, daughters of Mrs. Fred V. Quaron of West Maple road; W. Stoddard White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. White of Brookside drive; and Dorothy Peck, who is spending the week with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peck of Bates street.

Others are Joy Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Stewart Park avenue; Betty Neal, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. A. Neal of Oakdale avenue; and Doris Root, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Root of Pierce street.

Edwin Deor of Rivenook road is spending the vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin J. Deor; as also Carl Hilty, son of Mrs. Maude Hilty Stroup of Elm street; Roderick Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Cox of East Maple road; and Jack Savage, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Savage of North Cranbrook road.

Others home are Richard Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Fleming of West Maple road; Reed B. Scott, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Don G. Scott of Plum road; Robert Muszy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Muszy of Bloomfield Hills; and Herbert Nigg, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Nigg of Madison avenue.

Also in Birmingham this week are Edward Kurta, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar A. Sabom of Mohegan avenue; Thomas Connellan, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Connellan of Fairfax road; Veneta and Dorothy Cook, daughters of Mrs. Kate B. Cook of West Lincoln avenue; Fred L. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Johnson of Adams road; and William O. Sabom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar A. Sabom of Mohegan drive.

Two of the girls are spending the spring vacation out-of-town. They are Fred Rollins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Rollins of Red Cabot road in St. Louis, Mo., for the week; and Roger N. Toothaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Toothaker of Merrill street, who is visiting friends at Michigan Center.

Members of the Christian Fellowship Class of the Baptist Church will appear in "Brown-Eyed Betty," a play representing rural life in Maine, in the auditorium of the church, Thursday evening, April 21.

Among those taking part in the cast will be Frederick A. Protheroe, Mrs. Leonard Fyfe, Leland Bunyan, Mrs. Charles Buck, Alvin Curtin, Mrs. E. McMillan, Mrs. Edwin Minks, Raymond Peck, David Anderson and Mrs. Anthony De Vinger.

Mrs. Rachel M. Bunyan is directing the play.

Mrs. E. W. Osborne of Pierce street, the newly elected president of the Parent-Teacher Association of Barnum Intermediate School, and Mrs. J. H. Rosso of Pierce street, are planning to motor to Kalamazoo, Wednesday to attend the state convention of the P. T. A. which will take place in that city Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald U. Bathrick of Southfield road will leave Birmingham, April 25, to take up their new residence in Kenilworth, suburb of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Bathrick were honored at two "revoir" parties Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher D. Richards of High road entertained at breakfast, which was to have been an outdoor event, had the weather permitted. Mr. and Mrs. C. Theron Van Dusen of Puritan road were hosts at a supper party Sunday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Bathrick.

From A WOMAN'S ANGLE

By MARJORIE ELAINE PORTER

I see by the paper that these are busy days at Mount Wilson Observatory in California. An astronomer in the Brussels University recently discovered an "object" new in the heavens.

And now all astronomical observers are peering assiduously through telescopes to identify it. They are all a-twitter, as they have fixed so far up to the right family connections in the celestial blue book.

"It can't belong to the well known family of Comets," astronomers argue, "because our observations have disclosed no tail." In the opinion of Dr. Frederick H. Sears of Mount Wilson, it is only "reflected light," and therefore it must be one of those "asteroids."

So, apparently, thought Judge Joseph Sabath of Chicago, when Noah Seefor testified, in an attempt to have his alimony payment of $15 a week reduced, that he made only $12 a week on his new stand.

"I'll take you up on that," Judge Sabath declared. "You give the stand to your wife, and I will give you $12 a week."

And so Mrs. Noah got the ark.

The best poetic authorities agree that "faint heart n'er won fair lady." Thurman Passmore of Marianna, Ark. won the fair lady all right, and then—

Just as Justice C. J. Gregory pronounced Passmore and Miss Barbara Reece man and wife, the newly made husband fainted.

And when the first month's bills come in, he'll probably have another attack of that "sinking feeling."

A few minutes ago, we mentioned twins. Now consider the case of James Morrow of London, England, the proud father of 19 children, who was presented with twin daughters last week.

Instead of counting his blessings, we'd suggest an annual roll call for this father.

More than 40 young people between the ages of 12 and 15 were guests at the first party in a new series sponsored by the Community House at the House Saturday evening, April 23, according to Mrs. H. E. Whalen, a member of the committee in charge.

Mrs. Robert M. Halsted of Westchesterway was hostess at a bridge luncheon Tuesday at which Mrs. Bernard Towles of Hartford, Conn., was the honoree. Mrs. Towles is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Halsted, at her home Thursday evening.

Mrs. E. W. Osborne of Pierce street will entertain the new officers of the Parent-Teacher Association of Barnum Intermediate School, of which she is president-elect, at her home Thursday evening.

When taxes are high and funds are low, be a little philosophical and consider the case of Mrs. Charles Poulton of Lewiston, Me., who is the mother of four sets of twins.
