

SOCIETY II THE HOUSE OF THE HOUSE

Scout Councils Announce Plans For Joint Card Party For 400 Guests

The first social affair to be given jointly by the Birmingham Boy and Girl Scout Councils will be held at the Community House...

Mrs. Craig H. Richey is chairman of the refreshment committee, composed of Mrs. Leo Billings, Mrs. F. W. Dubois, Mrs. Francis C. Bagby...

A progressive dinner party which culminated at the dance for young people at the Community House was given Saturday evening, April 9...

Mrs. John P. Mackay of Hazelwood avenue, with her children, Frances and Hugh, will leave for Rochester, N. Y. May 1...

Mrs. Thomas L. Thurber and her son, Thomas L., Jr., 40 Oak street are spending the week with Mrs. Thurber's daughter and son-in-law...

Mrs. Irving B. Babcock of Luse Fine road left Monday on a cruise to Miami, Fla., to be gone 10 days.

Mrs. Warren S. Hillis of Vinewood avenue entertained members of St. Margaret's Guild of St. James' Episcopal Church at luncheon Tuesday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Milton F. Coulson of Madison avenue, with their small son, returned Monday following a winter's sojourn at Miami Beach, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Coulson motored north on the Atlantic route at Pinehurst, N. C., and Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Frank L. Allen of Sunset Terrace, Cranbrook, who is spending the week at the home of Mrs. N. J., is expected to return Sunday.

Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., of Buckingham road, is chairman of arrangements for the annual spring dance to be given by the Village Players, May 6.

The regular family pot-luck supper will be held Friday evening at the Embury M. E. Church.

Chairmen of the Michigan State College Home Economics Extension Groups of Oakland County met Tuesday at the Centennial M. E. Church in Pontiac to discuss projects for the coming year.

Section A of the missionary department of the First Presbyterian Church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Seymour Adams of Adams road. A paper on "Sons of Africa" was read by Mrs. J. R. Bell. Mrs. Bell Ward had charge of the devotional.

Mrs. John B. Humphrey and Mrs. William J. McKinney were in charge of the music. Mrs. Caroline Uptagraf, president, presided. Section B also met Wednesday for a pot-luck luncheon at the church with Mrs. Paul Penfield in charge.

The American Home Department of the Women's Literary Club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Robert S. Phillips of Riveroak road at a pot-luck luncheon. Mrs. Catherine Vahy Mills is chairman of the department.

The Delphin Class met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Richard Jephson of Yorkshire road. The subject for discussion concerned "Augustus and the Germans" and "Roman Literature."

Williams Boot Shop advertisement featuring a shoe illustration and text: 'The Florsheim Shoe', 'more than ever', 'The Florsheim Shoe', 'more than ever', 'Williams Boot Shop', '115 West Maple'.

Annual Spring Dance To Be Held Friday At Cranbrook

Invitations have been issued to about 50 guests for the annual spring formal dance to be given by students of Cranbrook School in Cranbrook auditorium Friday evening, April 22.

James Wilcox is chairman of the committee in charge, and the guests will be Dr. W. O. Stevens, head master; C. J. Keppel, assistant head master, and Mrs. Keppel, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon V. Kallet and Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Yule.

Those invited include the Misses Janet Johnson, Delphia Hill, Betty Servis, Ruth Butzel, Dorice Saffrin, Mary Kapp, Marya Hoffmann and Ada Winslow of Kingswood School.

Also the Misses Becky Jane Tomlinson, Barbara Fitch, Mary Jane Brown, Janet Forbush, Catherine Hinshaw, Betty Klingensmith and Virginia Hill of Bloomfield Hills, and the Misses Julia Freston and Doris Hoffman of Birmingham.

Guests from Grosse Pointe will be the Misses Nancy Gowaski, Virginia Ford, Virginia Simmons and Winifred Hughes. From Toledo the guests will be the Misses Helen Wenzlau, Betty Jane Hardman, Nancy Gillet, Kathryn Higley, Sally Slatyer, Caroline Fox and Fatsy Croxy.

Invited from Detroit are the Misses Dorothy Cloudman, Barbara Marx, Jane Mutter, Margaret McConnell, Hughson McConnell, Frances Gillet, Suzanne Zeitlin, Jane Peerce, Valerie Renaud, Pauline Voorhis, Margaret McArthur and Gally Thompson.

Other guests include the Misses Margherita Ward and Marjorie Beaudette of Pontiac; Miss Katherine Brothers of Evanston, Ill.; Miss Jean Skinner of Milwaukee; Miss Beatrice Penberthy of Highland Park; Miss Mary Louise Holloway of Baltimore, Md.; Miss Bethany Warren of Flint, and Miss Marianne Montgomery of Peoria, Ill.

Mrs. Irving B. Babcock of Luse Fine road left Monday on a cruise to Miami, Fla., to be gone 10 days.

Mrs. Warren S. Hillis of Vinewood avenue entertained members of St. Margaret's Guild of St. James' Episcopal Church at luncheon Tuesday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Milton F. Coulson of Madison avenue, with their small son, returned Monday following a winter's sojourn at Miami Beach, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Coulson motored north on the Atlantic route at Pinehurst, N. C., and Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Frank L. Allen of Sunset Terrace, Cranbrook, who is spending the week at the home of Mrs. N. J., is expected to return Sunday.

Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., of Buckingham road, is chairman of arrangements for the annual spring dance to be given by the Village Players, May 6.

The regular family pot-luck supper will be held Friday evening at the Embury M. E. Church.

Chairmen of the Michigan State College Home Economics Extension Groups of Oakland County met Tuesday at the Centennial M. E. Church in Pontiac to discuss projects for the coming year.

Section A of the missionary department of the First Presbyterian Church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Seymour Adams of Adams road. A paper on "Sons of Africa" was read by Mrs. J. R. Bell. Mrs. Bell Ward had charge of the devotional.

Mrs. John B. Humphrey and Mrs. William J. McKinney were in charge of the music. Mrs. Caroline Uptagraf, president, presided. Section B also met Wednesday for a pot-luck luncheon at the church with Mrs. Paul Penfield in charge.

The American Home Department of the Women's Literary Club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Robert S. Phillips of Riveroak road at a pot-luck luncheon. Mrs. Catherine Vahy Mills is chairman of the department.

The Delphin Class met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Richard Jephson of Yorkshire road. The subject for discussion concerned "Augustus and the Germans" and "Roman Literature."

Freeman Beauty Salon advertisement: 'The Twins offer Full Fashioned Chiffon (or Semi) Hose 59c Pr. $1.00', 'Special! Permanent Waves $2.95 up', 'Finger Waves, 50c', '12 Years Experience your Guarantee!', 'Freeman Beauty Salon', 'Telephone 1727-J', '124 S. Woodward Ave.'.

Poor Richards Dance Will Close Season

Friday evening will mark the close of the season for the Poor Richards assembly when the final dance will be held at the Community House. Babcock is chairman of the committee of hostesses, which includes Mrs. Warren S. Hillis, Mrs. J. B. Humphrey, Mrs. Hoyt Metzger, Mrs. D. C. Mills, Mrs. William Hutton, Mrs. John R. Mitchell and Mrs. A. H. Moley.

Several dinner parties have been planned before the dance. Among those entertaining will be Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Usher, Jr., of Linden road, who will be hosts to 24 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Sitta of Oak street have invited a party of friends to dine that evening at the 70c and 60c luncheon.

Included among their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. E. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Middleton, with their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Etter, Dr. and Mrs. M. W. Shafer, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Price of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Heimiller of Ardmore drive will be hosts at a pot-luck dinner for a group including Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John R. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. George Howard Fox and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Anderson.

Tennis Club Seniors Will Hold Annual Dinner, Friday

An annual event is the spring dinner of the Birmingham Tennis Club which will take place Friday evening at a pot-luck dinner for a group including Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John R. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. George Howard Fox and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Anderson.

An annual event is the spring dinner of the Birmingham Tennis Club which will take place Friday evening at a pot-luck dinner for a group including Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John R. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. George Howard Fox and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Anderson.

Eric F. Hyde of Oakland avenue is expected to arrive in New York Friday from Moscow, where he has spent the past year as a member of the Albert Kahn delegation engaged in engineering projects in the Russian city.

Mrs. C. M. Ritchie of Bloomfield Court is spending several weeks visiting relatives and friends in eastern cities including Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, and Canonsburg, Pa. She will return May 10.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Mixer of Flint were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Edgerly of Adams road Monday evening.

Members of the Glee Club and Orchestra of Cranbrook School will give a concert at the Detroit Colony Club Saturday evening. Dancing will follow the program.

Fifteen members of the Present Day Club were in attendance Tuesday evening at the social meeting held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Kane of Smith avenue. The next meeting will be the annual meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. James Todd of Piercy street had as their guests over Sunday, Mrs. Burdine Hoover, Miss Myrtle Burse and James Rupert, all of Caro, Mich.

Mrs. John Harvey Rosen's group of Methodist Women's Society will give the Thursday luncheon at the church today from 11 A. M. until 1 P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. James Todd of Piercy street had as their guests over Sunday, Mrs. Burdine Hoover, Miss Myrtle Burse and James Rupert, all of Caro, Mich.

So reasonable—are the prices of Jeanne Wallaston, 38 E. Maple avenue, (phone 2196) and her work in making or remodeling your wardrobe, will please the most fastidious.

Of all the bargains! The Vida Freeman Beauty Salon, Levinson Building, offers a permanent wave for $2.95, as a special for next week only. The phone number is 1727-J.

Twenty million persons in the United States drive cars, and seven out of every 100 motor persons have defective vision, says Dr. J. H. Stover, optometrist, 140 E. Maple. Uncorrected, faulty vision is the cause of 50 percent of all automobile accidents. This is proven by official investigations of car accidents. Every driver should consider it part of his efficiency to have his eyes examined by a competent optometrist and to be fitted with lenses if he needs them.—Adv.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Presbyterian Women's Union will be held Wednesday afternoon, April 27, at 2:30 o'clock in the church parlors. Mrs. Floyd A. Franklin, Mrs. Walter L. Moreland, Mrs. D. Shirley and Mrs. Charles H. Soderburg will act as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Strelinger of Dorchester road will leave Birmingham to make their home in Boston, Mass. Mrs. Strelinger with her children, Nancy Jean and Philip, will remain in Birmingham until the close of the semester, when they will join Mr. Strelinger in the East.

Miss Louise Mintling of Townsend street has had as her guest this week, Ethel H. Arndt of the U. S. Marine Corps. Mr. Arndt, who was recently stationed at Stovaco, Ind., will be returning to Quantico, Va., where he will be stationed in the future.

So this is the civilization the doughboys died to save.—Boulevard Enterprise.

Wilson P. Lyons Real Estate & Insurance advertisement: '4 Bedroom, 2 Bath Home $90', 'For those who appreciate a delightful old house with one of the most unusual views in the village.', 'Shown by appointment only.', 'Wilson P. Lyons Real Estate & Insurance 290 N. Woodward Birmingham 972'.

Wedding Plans Of Popular Couple Will Be Revealed At Bridge Luncheon Today

The engagement of Miss Evangelina Marion (Nancy) Tremblay of Detroit and Charles A. Bingham of Birmingham will be announced today at a bridge luncheon for 25 guests, at the home of the bride-elect, will be hostess.

Miss Tremblay, who is well known to Birmingham's younger social set, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene L. Tremblay, Pennington drive, Detroit. She is graduate of St. Gregory's High School in Detroit, and last year attended the College of the City of Detroit. She also an accomplished pianist and a student of the pipe organ.

Mr. Bingham is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Bingham, both of whom were prominent in Birmingham's civic and social life. He is a graduate of Baldwin High School, and is a member of the sales staff of E. W. Osborne, Ford agent.

A bit of romance surrounding the engagement is the fact that the young couple met in the city of Detroit. Miss Tremblay became engaged was the same presented by his father to his mother before her marriage to Mr. Bingham gave the ring to his son, with the request that he present the wedding, shortly before his death last October.

Miss Tremblay has chosen June 2 as the date for her marriage, which will be solemnized in the Faculty Building of the University of Detroit. Following the wedding the couple will reside in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hutchinson of Detroit were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Adams of Adams road.

The Sans Souci Bridge Club was entertained at a bridge and pot-luck dinner last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. R. J. Taylor of Southfield avenue.

Among the Birmingham people who were guests at the dancing party given by the Detroit Cadillac Hotel under the auspices of the Supreme White Shrine Council, Detroit, were Mr. and Mrs. Tuesday evening, were Mr. and Mrs. Michael Miller, Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brock, E. L. Waterman, Mrs. Richard Lawler, Mr. and Mrs. Percy A. Vaughan, Mrs. James A. Todd and Mrs. J. P. Hackett.

Mr. and Mrs. Helen Lajoie of Henrietta street entertained Monday evening at a bridge party at the Baldwin High School teachers.

John C. Dancy, director of the Detroit Urban League, a negro organization, will speak at the Tuesday evening, were Mr. and Mrs. Michael Miller, Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brock, E. L. Waterman, Mrs. Richard Lawler, Mr. and Mrs. Percy A. Vaughan, Mrs. James A. Todd and Mrs. J. P. Hackett.

Mr. and Mrs. Helen Lajoie of Henrietta street entertained Monday evening at a bridge party at the Baldwin High School teachers.

The annual meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star will be held Wednesday, April 27, at the Masonic Temple. All members are requested to be present.

The Borean Class of the Methodist Church was entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. E. W. Allen of Ridgedale avenue.

Mrs. Sarah Campbell of Purdy street spent Monday in Plymouth visiting school friends.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Smith of Kentwood entertained at the dinner Saturday evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Eugene Smith and their son, Earl, Mrs. Bell Ward and E. N. Smith.

Mrs. Emil G. Olin of Southfield was accompanied by Mrs. Helen Lajoie and Mrs. Homer Lajoie of Pontiac, spent Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. John A. Wendorph of Flint.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Conference meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held Wednesday and Thursday of this week at the First M. E. Church in Ann Arbor. Mrs. D. L. Tate, Mrs. T. M. Faddis, Mrs. W. J. LaMessure and Robert W. Lynd will motor to Ann Arbor Wednesday, taking with them 16 of the young people of the church who will attend the young people's banquet which opens the conference. On Friday Mrs. Tate and Mrs. W. J. LaMessure and Robert W. Lynd will motor to Ann Arbor Wednesday, taking with them 16 of the young people of the church who will attend the young people's banquet which opens the conference. On Friday Mrs. Tate and Mrs. W. J. LaMessure and Robert W. Lynd will motor to Ann Arbor Wednesday, taking with them 16 of the young people of the church who will attend the young people's banquet which opens the conference.

Delicious Pies, 25c Cakes, Cookies, Rolls Bread, 10c - Place Your Order Early

The COTTAGE

5. E. Corner Merrill and Chester—South Side of Library We Deliver—Phone 1264

Drop in with your friends after the theatre—we are open all night!

Tasty, well-cooked food and generous portions—that's why people say the Dixie Diner is "Still the best place to eat!"

Dixie Diner

(Across from the Theatre) FULL COURSE DINNER 50c

"You'll Feel Our Welcome" HARRY ROBERTS, Mgr.

K. Magarian rug importer advertisement: 'Oriental Rug Importers', 'K. MAGARIAN', '1579 Jefferson Ave., East', 'Rug Cleaning and Repairing by Native Weavers', 'LUCILE S. MACAULEY', 'Birmingham Representative', '208 E. Brown St.', 'Phone 2655'.

Barr's Nuts advertisement: 'NUT MEATS', 'Used in salads... many delicious and decorative dishes can be arranged from our full line of imported and domestic nuts. Serve them at your next meal!', 'SPECIAL THIS WEEK! Sugar Coated Jordan Almonds 49c lb.', 'Fresh Kuhn's Candies', 'BARR'S HOUSE OF NUTS', '161 West Maple', 'Fresh MacDiarmid's Candies'.

Home Made Week End Specials advertisement: 'HOME MADE WEEK END SPECIALS', 'Two Egg Angel Food Cake, Iced... 75c', 'Six Egg Size... 95c', 'Old Fashioned Sour Cream Cookies, doz... 13c', 'Cinnamon Rolls with Fruit, doz... 18c', 'Buttermilk Fried Cakes, Plain or Sugared, doz... 18c', 'Sugar Cookies, White or Spiced, doz... 12c', 'Parker House Rolls, doz... 16c'.

The Cottage advertisement: 'AT ALL TIMES Delicious Pies, 25c Cakes, Cookies, Rolls Bread, 10c - Place Your Order Early', 'The COTTAGE', '5. E. Corner Merrill and Chester—South Side of Library', 'We Deliver—Phone 1264'.

Dixie Diner advertisement: 'Drop in with your friends after the theatre—we are open all night!', 'Tasty, well-cooked food and generous portions—that's why people say the Dixie Diner is "Still the best place to eat!"'.

Dixie Diner advertisement: 'Dixie Diner (Across from the Theatre) FULL COURSE DINNER 50c', '"You'll Feel Our Welcome" HARRY ROBERTS, Mgr.'.