

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AND THE HILLS

By MARJORIE ELAINE PORTER

W. C. T. U. To Hold Medal Contest Here

For the first time in many years, the Birmingham Union, W. C. T. U., will conduct a Silver Medal Contest in the auditorium of the Baldwin Public Library Tuesday evening at 8 P. M.

The contestants will give readings selected from a W. C. T. U. Substitution. Those taking part are Betty Ellington, Helen Ellis, Louise Mack, Lois Boy, Viola Roper and Marjorie Winsor. The program will also include musical numbers.

Invitations is extended to the public to attend.

In former years the Birmingham Union conducted a Silver Medal Contest. Mrs. C. G. Jackson of Oakland Avenue, local president, explained when the custom was discontinued. However, we feel it is an excellent means of arousing interest among members, and hope to resume it this year.

Prizes for the contest will be Miss Margaret Ross, Ellsworth C. Pimsted and Mrs. Dewey Kimball.

Mrs. and Mrs. H. E. Whalen of Greenwood Avenue have received a number of congratulations for their return to their old home town, Howard, who motor on to attend the Olympic Games while in that city. He also will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McCormick, who moved there recently from Birmingham.

Among Birmingham youths who attended the Olympic Games in Los Angeles, and are still sojourning in the west, are Jack Whittlesey, Miss Steves and Bob Utley, Forest Fowler, Reed Scott and Bob Murray. The three former, traveling together, plan to return about Sept. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce A. Swaney of Ravine road, with their daughters, Juliet and Mary, motored to Anchorage, Alaska, where they visited Mrs. Swaney's mother, Mrs. Nettie Swaney.

Dr. Bernard W. Carey of Southfield road, with his sons, Philip and Richard, and Frank O'Donnell, Jr., returned Thursday night from a fishing trip in northern Michigan.

Miss Louise Standart with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Landerbush and their small daughter, Bonnie Ann, of Minneapolis, Minn., who have been guests for a fortnight at the Sly Farm on West Maple and Wing Lake roads, will return to their home today.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Whittesey of East Hickory Grove road, entertained the vestry of St. James Episcopal Church at their home Tuesday evening.

MINT FREEZE
A Refreshing Drink
5c
SHAIN'S FOUNTAIN

SIBYL McDONALD
Theatrical Director
B. Mus. American Conservatory of Music, Chicago
TELEPHONE BIRMINGHAM 2774

At Your Birmingham Healy Shop

BEING ADMIRER IS HALF THE FUN IN LIFE!

GOLDSTREE Style No. 324

Filmy, Flattering Chiffon Stockings

$1 Pair

The finest of chiffons, silk from top to toe, with a silk foot for the cut-out shoe and a silk garter top.

STORE HOURS:
Daily 10:00 to 6:00 P. M.
Saturdays Until 9 P. M.

Council Aids Voters In Choice Of Candidates

Voters of Oakland County will have an opportunity to study the qualifications and past experience of candidates for state and county offices, when questionnaires sent out by the Committee of Candidates of the Oakland County Council of Women are returned and placed on file at the committee headquarters in the Community House.

To enable voters to form opinions and make decisions, before casting ballots, the Council committee has compiled questionnaires, of which 115 were sent out last week, seeking necessary information.

The committee, with Mrs. C. A. Shafer of Ferndale as chairman, includes Mrs. H. E. Whalen of Ferndale, Mrs. C. G. Jackson of Oakland Avenue, local president, explained when the custom was discontinued. However, we feel it is an excellent means of arousing interest among members, and hope to resume it this year.

Prizes for the contest will be Miss Margaret Ross, Ellsworth C. Pimsted and Mrs. Dewey Kimball.

Mrs. and Mrs. H. E. Whalen of Greenwood Avenue have received a number of congratulations for their return to their old home town, Howard, who motor on to attend the Olympic Games while in that city. He also will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McCormick, who moved there recently from Birmingham.

Among Birmingham youths who attended the Olympic Games in Los Angeles, and are still sojourning in the west, are Jack Whittlesey, Miss Steves and Bob Utley, Forest Fowler, Reed Scott and Bob Murray. The three former, traveling together, plan to return about Sept. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce A. Swaney of Ravine road, with their daughters, Juliet and Mary, motored to Anchorage, Alaska, where they visited Mrs. Swaney's mother, Mrs. Nettie Swaney.

Dr. Bernard W. Carey of Southfield road, with his sons, Philip and Richard, and Frank O'Donnell, Jr., returned Thursday night from a fishing trip in northern Michigan.

Miss Louise Standart with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Landerbush and their small daughter, Bonnie Ann, of Minneapolis, Minn., who have been guests for a fortnight at the Sly Farm on West Maple and Wing Lake roads, will return to their home today.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Whittesey of East Hickory Grove road, entertained the vestry of St. James Episcopal Church at their home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. and Mrs. H. E. Whalen of Greenwood Avenue have received a number of congratulations for their return to their old home town, Howard, who motor on to attend the Olympic Games while in that city. He also will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McCormick, who moved there recently from Birmingham.

Among Birmingham youths who attended the Olympic Games in Los Angeles, and are still sojourning in the west, are Jack Whittlesey, Miss Steves and Bob Utley, Forest Fowler, Reed Scott and Bob Murray. The three former, traveling together, plan to return about Sept. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce A. Swaney of Ravine road, with their daughters, Juliet and Mary, motored to Anchorage, Alaska, where they visited Mrs. Swaney's mother, Mrs. Nettie Swaney.

Dr. Bernard W. Carey of Southfield road, with his sons, Philip and Richard, and Frank O'Donnell, Jr., returned Thursday night from a fishing trip in northern Michigan.

Opening of Metamora Heralds Approaching Hunting Season

Even if the calendar was not an even-tempered reminder of the changes of the year, the most popular of the season would be the opening of the Metamora Heralds. The opening of the Metamora Heralds, the most popular of the season, would be the opening of the Metamora Heralds.

The hall of social activities is being held at the residence of Miss Betty Utley of Southfield Avenue, was hostess at a luncheon Thursday in honor of Miss Wall and her daughters, who departed yesterday for a month's visit to Colorado.

Miss Betty Utley and Miss Mary Pyle will entertain Friday afternoon at the Community House. Mrs. H. E. Whalen, Mrs. Fred L. Liskow and Mrs. M. J. H. White will be the hostesses.

In addition to the foregoing luncheon, a special feature will be the opening of the Metamora Heralds, the most popular of the season, would be the opening of the Metamora Heralds.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Embury M. E. Church will hold a picnic Saturday at the Virginia Market on South Woodward Avenue. Mrs. Madison Skyles is in charge of arrangements.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Redeemer Lutheran Church will entertain at a card party, Aug. 24, at the home of Mrs. Henry C. Milledam of Park Street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Barth of Larchdale Avenue, and their son, William, left Sunday to spend part of their vacation visiting in Alpha, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Allen of Edgemoor Avenue entertained Thursday evening from Iowa City, by way of Wisconsin, the Upper Peninsula and northern Michigan.

Miss Denia Hallock of Ann Street had as her guests over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McAfee of Scarsdale, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davlyn of Edgemoor Avenue and their daughter, Edward and Marilyn, left Friday for a lake near Fenton where they will spend a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucile S. Macaulay of East Brown Street left Friday to spend several days in Chicago, returning Tuesday.

Mrs. Ethel Kuhlman of Hayes Street will leave Monday for Anderson, Ind., to be gone a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Hopping of Montclair, Ind., will spend three weeks, Kent, Jimmie and Bill, were guests for the week-end of Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Leont in Michigan road, returning to their home Tuesday.

Bible School Plans Zonta Clubs Meet For Gypsy Picnic

A program and exhibition of handwork at the Embassy M. E. Church on Bonaventure Avenue will mark the closing Friday morning of the Bible School conducted at the church for the past few weeks. The school, which was open to children of school age, enrolled 144 pupils, with an average attendance of 15 students throughout the session.

The course of study for the senior group was based upon the theme: "Building of Christian Character," and for the younger group the study theme was "Christian Living in the Home." Constructive work was also taught under the general head of "Christian Arts."

The program Friday, which will begin at 9:30 A. M., will review the progress made in the various branches of study. The school was conducted under the supervision of Miss Lottie Board, of Detroit.

Birmingham Zontas assisting the committee included Miss Julia Valance, Miss Blanche Bredy and Miss Leola Jacquem. Mrs. Cecile Cloonan, president of the Pontiac Club, was general chairman. Assisting her were Mrs. Ethel Wooden, Mrs. B. J. Kelly, Miss Anne Reese, Mrs. Guy Tibbs, Miss Pauline Spragg and Mrs. William A. Sherwood.

Mrs. F. W. Boynton of Deerchase road, and her family returned Saturday from North Lake, where they spent the month of July.

O. W. Richard, well known in Birmingham through his association with the local postoffice, Mrs. Richard and their daughter, son-in-law, Mrs. Mrs. E. J. Underwood, left Saturday for Long Island, N. Y., where they will be guests for a week.

August Reductions

Today, Tomorrow and Saturday

Picot top CHIFFONS or Semi-Sheer Hosiery 49c
Beautiful Hosiery and a marvelous value at this price. All first quality! 2 Pairs 89c

Genuine 45-gauge CHIFFON HOSE 69c
Hosiery of this kind can be purchased once in a lifetime at this price. 3 Pairs $2

Our complete stock of Pure Silk French Crepe Bias Cut PRINCESS SLIPS
Closing out $1.39
Dance Sets and Chemise $1.95 to $1.99

TWIN HOSEIERY SHOP
North Woodward Avenue

Enrollments are now being made for MRS. WOODRUFF'S NURSERY SCHOOL
616 GREENWOOD AVENUE
FALL TERM OPENS SEPTEMBER 6th
A few first grade children will be taken
THIS CHAIRS ARE MODERN!
TELEPHONE BIRMINGHAM 2724

CASH SPECIALS

Friday Saturday

MONARCH BRAND

Egg Noodles 23c
Macaroni Spaghetti All Three for 23c

Genatine Desserts Any Flavor 25c

Bechnut Coffee 3 lbs. for 93c

FACTS TO CONSIDER

This is a Home owned store. Convenient credit can be arranged. Quality food products of known value are offered at reasonable prices. Your telephone order receives the same careful consideration as your personal call.

GIVE US A TRIAL ORDER

OLSEN'S MARKET
"A Market Devoted to the Community It Serves"
PHONE 648 DELIVERY SERVICE

HONORS GO TO TWIN BRUNETTES

Photo by Mrs. Robert F. Tillotson of Handson Avenue in Westwood, who was the guest of the week-end in Alpena, where they visited Mr. Richell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richell.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold R. Boehm of Ravine road will leave Saturday for the Shipahoy Club in Presque Isle, where they will spend 10 days or a fortnight.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Long of Evansville, Ind., arrived Wednesday for the guests of Mrs. and Mrs. J. Z. Lander of East Maple road. Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Lander with Mrs. Lander, Sr., were dinner guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Gordon of Baldwin Avenue.

Mrs. Robert F. Tillotson of Handson Avenue in Westwood, who was the guest of the week-end in Alpena, where they visited Mr. Richell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richell.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold R. Boehm of Ravine road will leave Saturday for the Shipahoy Club in Presque Isle, where they will spend 10 days or a fortnight.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Long of Evansville, Ind., arrived Wednesday for the guests of Mrs. and Mrs. J. Z. Lander of East Maple road. Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Lander with Mrs. Lander, Sr., were dinner guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Gordon of Baldwin Avenue.

Mrs. Robert F. Tillotson of Handson Avenue in Westwood, who was the guest of the week-end in Alpena, where they visited Mr. Richell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richell.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold R. Boehm of Ravine road will leave Saturday for the Shipahoy Club in Presque Isle, where they will spend 10 days or a fortnight.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Long of Evansville, Ind., arrived Wednesday for the guests of Mrs. and Mrs. J. Z. Lander of East Maple road. Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Lander with Mrs. Lander, Sr., were dinner guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Gordon of Baldwin Avenue.