

The Birmingham Eccentric (Founded in 1878) Publishing office, Thursday, at Birmingham, Mich., in The Eccentric Building, 212 North Second Avenue. Telephone 11, 12, and 13.

Subscription Rates: One Year $2.00, Six Months $1.25, Three Months $0.75. Single Copies 10c.

The Eccentric is a member of: National Editorial Association, Michigan Press Association, University Press Club, and Oakland County Press Association.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 1932

NOTICE: The Eccentric is pleased to publish stories of events which have value and which are written by persons not connected with the editorial staff of the paper.

Our School Finances: The Board of Education of the Birmingham district has annulled all teachers' contracts for the coming year.

Why Not More Democrats?: An able Orator, Atre Pomerene, is selected by President Hoover as chairman of the Relief Finance Corporation.

County Welfare Less: Deputies know that Oakland County's most serious problem is none other than taking care of its indigent.

Welfare and Waste: Willingness of the federal government to extend funds for welfare relief to the extent is resulting in a waste of money.

Meetings, Tuscola!: The Tuscola County Advertiser recently completed its 64th consecutive year of publication.

Over-Lasting Credit: The least units of government that are being borne down by their enormous debts are the folks in charge of the Washington.

God and Bungling Man: Kindly and gentle, 'Bill' Berkeley each week sends forth from his printing office in Cassopolis, Michigan, The Vigilant.

Almighty God, whom men forget in their prosperity, is now about to carry out a great country, rich in all natural resources.

Why Not More Democrats?: An able Orator, Atre Pomerene, is selected by President Hoover as chairman of the Relief Finance Corporation.

Why Not More Democrats?: An able Orator, Atre Pomerene, is selected by President Hoover as chairman of the Relief Finance Corporation.

County Welfare Less: Deputies know that Oakland County's most serious problem is none other than taking care of its indigent.

Welfare and Waste: Willingness of the federal government to extend funds for welfare relief to the extent is resulting in a waste of money.

Meetings, Tuscola!: The Tuscola County Advertiser recently completed its 64th consecutive year of publication.

Over-Lasting Credit: The least units of government that are being borne down by their enormous debts are the folks in charge of the Washington.

From The Eccentric Columns of Long Ago: FIFTY YEARS AGO. Mr. B. K. Taber and Mr. W. H. Kenney of Detroit.

Mr. B. K. Taber and Mr. W. H. Kenney of Detroit. They will visit Detroit, Michigan, which is expected to be a very successful one.

Mr. B. K. Taber and Mr. W. H. Kenney of Detroit. They will visit Detroit, Michigan, which is expected to be a very successful one.

Mr. B. K. Taber and Mr. W. H. Kenney of Detroit. They will visit Detroit, Michigan, which is expected to be a very successful one.

Mr. B. K. Taber and Mr. W. H. Kenney of Detroit. They will visit Detroit, Michigan, which is expected to be a very successful one.

Mr. B. K. Taber and Mr. W. H. Kenney of Detroit. They will visit Detroit, Michigan, which is expected to be a very successful one.

Mr. B. K. Taber and Mr. W. H. Kenney of Detroit. They will visit Detroit, Michigan, which is expected to be a very successful one.

Mr. B. K. Taber and Mr. W. H. Kenney of Detroit. They will visit Detroit, Michigan, which is expected to be a very successful one.

The Lion's Share: "Let American naval critics reflect on what their own attitude would be if the U.S. Navy had a fleet of fifty modern battleships instead of the 4,000 obsolete ones."

William Beebe, scientist and author: "As a matter of fact, the many of mine have been written in tree-tops, on ditches, or sitting on coral reefs four fathoms down."

Henry Ford, auto maker: "We cannot eat or wear much more of the world's food and machinery so it would die. When it comes to sustaining life, we go to the field."

Agnes Smith, writer: "So far as I can see, the Washington is either a very good machine or a very bad one."

H. L. Menckon, literary critic: "A man of fifty who still writes poetry is either a very good machine or a very bad one."

Arthur Train, novelist: "During the next few years, I expect to see a revival of general interest in works of poetry, fiction and drama."

Paralaf's: The Government is not only living beyond its income, but also beyond ours.

Jest For the Fun of It: Shocking! Dorothy, attending church for the first time, was surprised to see the people about her kneel.

U.S. NEEDS DICTATOR: As we see it not only the nation but the government itself is in a state of chaos.

THE GREATEST OF THESE: Mr. Michael Pupin, who has been recently honored by the highest award of the engineering profession in this country.

HAPPINESS: Sink yourself out of sight. That is the secret of happiness. Less sight of yourself, the more you are.

LEGAL LOOPHOLES: An instance of this protection for a criminal's rights to the point of absurdity, happened one day in the presence of the writer.

THE OTHER CHAP SAYS SOMETHING: jeopardsy," the case could not be started over again.

THIS WHITE RACE: Get out of your system the idea that you belong to a superior race.

No Longer: Congress finds it hard to realize that the taxpayers are no longer able to support the government in the style to which it has become accustomed.

Famous Firm: Doctor: "Then you will be able to pay my bill." Famous Firm: "Yes, doctor, and what then?"