By AUDEE ENCE

Celebs in Hollywood have to observe another "Thou Shall Not" or else they risk being exposed in fan magazines. Producers governing their stars at work on "11th commandment" to be known legally as "verb" in oral turnpike." Which means no boasting of conquests in print.

STARS OF RADIOLAND

Ray Knight

Ray Knight is just as persistent as the bird in the cuckoo clock and even harder to silence. He is the creator of the Cuckoos, who know, and founder of Station KURU. Mrs. George T. Penfield, Petcock Soames and his Duchess Clair de Lyc are again heard with Ray regularly once a week.

into plot, and entire group of stars will be available for casting.

Sale.

Vicki Baum, author of "Grand Hotel," recently sold her "Shining Shop" for screen adaptation. Cast not chosen yet.

Pioneer.

William Powell is first star to appear in first screen version of "Grand Slam," contract broken. "Grand Slam" deals with do-it-and-outer who becomes famous as "Inesse finger."

Different.

Chicago's station WMAQ third other experiment in "Summer School of Air," which proved a success. Station will broadcast 2400 watts, within range of its 500 watts. Public dance hall in White Hall, Ill., was fired by local board of education after 73 pupils to attend morning radio lessons. Chicago school teachers who originated idea donated time and services.

In algebra z stands for the third variable or unknown quantity, and in analytical geometry one of the system of point co-ordinates.

News of Charles Edwards Post No. 14 And Its Auxiliary

The Prism and Prism Photo of the Charles Edwards Post will enter the competition to be held during the State Fair on Governor and Veterans Day, Wednesday, Sept. 1. About 20 entries from all over the state are expected to compete for the $1,000 being offered in cash prizes.

An additional alternate delegate

A large delegation of members of the local post will leave Saturday for the national convention at Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 25-28. More than 600 members have already signified their intention to represent Birmingham in the contest. One of the possible candidates in the delegation has been asked to get in touch with Comrades (Montgomery, Marion and Levinson) who wish to stop the convention.

Convention headquarters for the Birmingham delegation of the American Legion Auxiliary have been established at the Park-American Hotel.

The membership of Charles Edwards Post is now 1,554, the latest report from the national office. It also includes 1,000 auxiliary members who have joined the Drum and Bugle Corps.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. MacGregor, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. David Lewinson and Mr. and Mrs. George Baldwin were among those from Birmingham who had been invited to the annual meeting of the Post and Auxiliary.

Children of the nation are mourning the death of Rin Tin Tin, the screen's most famous dog actor.

One of the Hollywood's most popular dogs, Rin Tin Tin, died Saturday at his home in Los Angeles at the age of 14 years. In the photo he was a 14-month-old pup.

Rin Tin Tin was almost human on many occasions. He even autographed much of his film mail, sometimes as many as 100 letters a week, with a dab of his forepaw.
