

FINTEX FORCED TO PLAY AGAIN

Vogue Nine Holds Leaders And Makes Another Game Necessary

Vogue Clusters forced Finex into second game possibly a tie game in the championship series Monday by holding the leaders to a three run tie in six innings. The game was called because of rain.

A victory for Finex Monday would have finished the playoffs in the league. The team is un-won, singled and scored on. Kreger hit a single and scored on. Kreger hit a single and scored on. The sixth when Horn walked. Grace and the Finex infidels for mother.

The same score was made by the Cletoons in the last half, making a playoff of the tie necessary.

The game was marked by the tight playing of both teams. Vogus had eight men on base.

The pitchers were of almost identical strength. Although Horn gave more hits than O'Toole, he was more efficient.

Finex players played bases on balls, Horn gave three.

Among the hitters, Kreger with three hits and one score, gave the best performance. Horn had only one official trip to the Cletoons field, Loyd Hodge, shot for Finex, was undoubtedly the star. More than one drive just left if second was turned into an out.

For his hitting, Hodge was named the team's all-star team this week. The honor of the mound was won by Wickman, of the Eastern Mich.

The complete team is as follows:

Players	H	R	B	HR	BB	Outs	Score
Bell—Finex	4	2	6	0	0	0	0
Hayes—Finex	4	2	6	0	0	0	0
Craigie—Finex	6	3	8	0	0	0	0
R. Steele—Finex	5	4	4	0	0	0	0

Tied in the round robin were Vogus, who has been defeated once; Finex; Finex's all-star pitcher, allowed four hits, his team-mates five; O'Toole, the Vogus hurler, allowed two.

The first two innings were played without a tally. Horn popped himself out of a hole in the fifth, but the Finex bats were silent until the third and came home on a wild pitch. Finex came back in his turn with tallies by Brown and Craigie. Both teams had the plate open during the middle.

Vogus again tied it up in the fifth through a run by Kuehne, with runners on second and third. Kreger, center fielder for the Cletoons, began the scoring when he hit a single to right. He reached first, being tossed out on second on the next ball. The Bensys watched 11 of their team-mates strike out.

Both teams' strength was not especially in their pitchers. More than twice, outside drivers than knocked like trees cut down by Haynes in center field, while Hodge held his pitcher by playing errorless ball for seven frames.

From one or two thoughtless plays when runners held down the field, the two players, as well as even, and Stephens allowed only six hits.

Hodge and Flaherty, shortstop and catcher for Finex, did some fine work in defense. Voss, Finex left fielder, led the hitters with a .667 average.
