OHIO MAN DROWNS AT ORCHARD LAKE

Falls From Canoe Near Country Club, Causes Death
1932 Lake Accident

Oakland County's 18th drowning of the season occurred at dusk Wednesday last week at Orchard Lake when Howard Wilson of Columbus, O., fell from the stern of a canoe and sank while trying to reach the shore.

Wilson, the guest at the club of two Detroit members, was paddling a canoe in the lake near the shore of the country club. He was seen to fall from the canoe. As he came up he began to swim toward the shore, but sank halfway to it, failing to rise.

John Law, swimming instructor, and Hewitt Noble, boatman, dove immediately to the scene of the accident and Law dove repeatedly but was unable to reach the body, which sank in approximately 35 feet of water.

Hours of repeated dragging of the spot indicated by the two club officers and Orchard Lake police, aided by a portable water-pump searchlight, failed to recover the body until, on the orders of Chief Carson of the Orchard Lake police, operations were moved to a spot approximately 50 yards farther out. Officer Robert Dixon and Noble recovered the body at the new location, in about 10 feet of water, shortly after noon Thursday, approximately 10 hours after the accident.

Seeks Re-election

Basing his campaign on his activity in the office and on his claims for increased efficiency in the office, Mr. Norman C. Orr, of Big Beaver, has announced his candidacy for re-election to the office of County Register of Deeds on the Republican ticket.

"My experience in the office of Register of Deeds during a period of over 20 years (10 clerk, deputy, and Register) has enabled me to write the people of Oakland County more efficient and economical legislation than could any other person in this county," Mr. Orr announced.

"I have had thorough training in every branch of work in this office and have devoted my entire time to it," he says.

"I have always endeavored to be loyal to my office instead of depending on the party to do all the actual work. It would be necessary with an inexperienced Register, which is the saving of the taxpayers of the county and should interest them in his election."

Former Prosecutor Runs For Re-election

Promises "Rigid Economy, Speedy Disposition of Cases" in Asking Nomination

Announcing his candidacy for the office of Prosecuting Attorney on the Republican ticket, Norman C. Orr, of Big Beaver, made the following statement:

"Never before in its history has this county needed, as it now needs, a fearless, impartial, aggressive, consistent administration in this particular office. To accomplish this, our Prosecutor must be an able and efficient administrator."

"I promise a program of rigid economy, consistent with proper administration of the affairs of the office, according to the ability and fearlessness, fair and impartial attention to all cases coming into the office, according to the merits of my own conscience. I also promise a staff of fair, conscientious and competent attorneys to assist in carrying out the affairs of the office."

"I believe that a great saving could be effected in a proper and thorough investigation of all matters coming into the office and a prompt and speedy disposition of the cases. Delayed trials and continued cases result in inefficiency, expense and a miscarriage of justice."

"During my two years as Assistant Prosecuting Attorney and my term as Prosecuting Attorney, I have tried all of the important criminal cases that were handed to me by the office, and the undisputed records of the Circuit Court will show that these cases were tried with a great degree of success."

"I was born in Michigan and grew up at my home in Big Beaver with my wife and three children. Frankly, I am a member of the F. & A. M. I. O. O. F. Club and the Berkeley Exchange Club, and have been a life-long Republican."

Norman C. Orr

Mr. Orr is a lawyer, as well as counsellor, thoroughly conversant with the law, both civil and criminal.

"In spite of the fact that the volume of business in the Prosecuting office has decreased in percentage during the last two years, as compared with the previous two years, the cost of the present administration has advanced 25 percent over the cost of the administration for the previous two years. This is due to the fact that the present economic condition of the county when all county departments are making a strenuous effort to reduce their operating expenses."

"If elected I promise a program of rigid economy, consistent with proper administration of the affairs of the office, according to the ability and fearlessness, fair and impartial attention to all cases coming into the office, according to the merits of my own conscience. I also promise a staff of fair, conscientious and competent attorneys to assist in carrying out the affairs of the office."

Not Good Business
An old financier was very ill and a friend, to cheer him up, said, "Man, you'll fool the doctor and live to be a hundred."

"No, my friend," said the aged banker, "that wouldn't be good finance. Why should the Lord wait till I reached par when He can tick me up at ninety?"—Boston Transcript

The waitress returned with his order, whereupon the traveling man said, "Well, here are the eggs and the coffee but where are the kind words?"

Waitress: "Don't eat them eggs."
