A. A. U. W. Juniors Organize And Elect Officers

Miss Myrtle Harmon was elected chairman and Mrs. Edward M. Tyler, vice-chairman of the newly organized Junior branch of the American Association of University Women which met Wednesday evening of last week, at Miss Harmon's home on Euclid avenue.

Mrs. William K. Essery of the senior A. A. U. W. addressed the group, explaining qualifications for membership in the national organization. Because of the fact that the juniors voted to withhold their application for membership in the senior association until April, only two officers were chosen. The group voted to meet the second Wednesday of each month.

In the new branch will be Miss Harmon and Mrs. Tyler, Mes. Francis M. Cooke, Miss Elizabeth Hassell, Miss Betty Latham, Miss Virginia Howland, Miss Betty Utter, Miss Annie Lomdie, Miss Marjorie Unger, Miss Clara Unger, and Mrs. Donald T. Rice.

Barnum P. T. A. Has New Mothers' Chorus

As a result of a Christmas program given Thursday by a double quartet composed of mothers belonging to the Parent-Teacher Association of Barnum School, a permanent chorus has been established.

The program was given by the mothers when their organization entertained members of the Ebenezer School unit at tea and local gathering.

Carols sung by the chorus included "O Little Town of Bethlehem," "Away In A Manger," "It Came Upon A Midnight Clear," and "The First Noel." The familiar "Silent Night" was sung as duet by Mrs. Emerson Brown and Mrs. J. F. McConkie.

Because of the pleasure derived from singing together, those in the double quartet decided to organize a permanent Mothers' Chorus. Included in the membership will be Mrs. F. A. Prothro, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Raymond Peck, Mrs. Joseph Diller, Mrs. McConkie, Mrs. Charles Plumstead, Mrs. L. H. Willson and Mrs. Edwin Lis.

Riders Blaze Trail For New Open Hunt Club

A group of courageous riders blazed the trail Sunday when 45 men marked the course to be followed by members of a new open hunt club now in the process of organization.

Initial plans were made recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. P. Smith of Franklin, when about 34 residents of Franklin and Birmingham met to discuss the project.

As a result of this meeting, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Frank Eddy, Percy Holmes and F. F. Myster rode over the trail Sunday to try out the jumps already erected, and other features of the course. The next meeting is scheduled for Jan. 3, also at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Further steps in the club's progress, including plans for a tentative clubhouse and a small pack of hounds, will be discussed at this meeting, when officers also will be elected.

Those who will constitute the first members of the new club are Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Silveberd, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Fisher, and Mr. and Mrs. George Wellington Smith of Franklin Village, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rivers, Mr. and Mrs. George Nachtrieb and Mrs. Clayton E. Greer, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hadley, Mr. and Mrs. H. Ferris Holmes, Mr. R. Mixer, Donald Bell, O. W. Yell, Leonard S. Lousie, and Carl Clark of Birmingham; and from Detroit, Miss Josephine Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McElectron, and Mr. and Mrs. William Beyer.

Members of the club hope to have the clubhouse and trail available for the early spring rides.

Birmingham Couple Celebrate Fiftieth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Todd of Birmingham, now residing at their star home in St. Petersburg, Fla., recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at an informal reception for a number of friends.

Among those to attend were several guests from Birmingham, including Mr. and Mrs. William E. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar M. Bride. Their son, George D. Todd, who spends his winters in Florida, was with his parents on this occasion.

The couple was married Dec. 12, 1882, near Flat Rock, Mich., where the bride, the former Miss Clara E. Waters, resided. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. David Johnson Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Todd, who have resided in this vicinity during their married life, have spent the winter months in St. Petersburg for the past 10 years.

Their family also includes a daughter, Mrs. George L. Hamann, two granddaughters, and two grandsons, who live near Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Canton Sears, Mrs. George Nechtans, Mrs. Roy Austin, Mrs. Lathrop Smart, and Mrs. Bernard L. Snyder of Birmingham were guests at a bridge luncheon Tuesday at which the hostess was Mrs. Ray First of Pleasant Ridge.
