BALDWIN HONOR STUDENTS FEWER

Only 52 Maintained "B" Average During Past Six Weeks, Roll Shows

The second marking period found only 52 students of Baldwin High School with a scholastic average of "B" or better, according to the honor roll announced this week by Miss Charlotte Wood, principal, who stated that the list is much smaller for this six-week period than usual.

The sophomore class gained the highest representation on the list with 17 members. They are Bob Jones, Jane Bredie, Albert Chisney, Victoria Gally, Lucille Hallett, Jane Long, Ruth Luter, Betty Jane McCormick, Edna Nelson, Franklin Phillips, Dorothy Forrist, Mary Quinn, James Ross, Dorothy Staebler, Sarah Hise, Mildred White and Carl W. Van.

From the 11th grade, 13 members are listed. They are Fred Sprenkle, Alice Bull, Henry Foy, Max Holzer, Patricia Huger, Walter J. J. Bobert, Mack Ross, George Louise Otteman, Mary Ann Ross, Bob Savage, Betty Anne White and Betty Wilson.

The 10th grade suffered the greatest decrease in representation. The roll is less by seven 12th graders than that for the first period. The 12 seniors on the roll are George Flynn, Bob Gibbons, Elton Hanley, Faylis Hanson, John Saunders, Virgil Owens, Virginia Beckard, Mary Palmer, Edw. Peterson, Stanley Thomas, Jim W. Van and Robert Ziegler.

Varsity Wins IN LATE RALLY

THE TUTTS

By Crawford Young

Alumni Quintet Falls Fourth Victim Of Baldwin Five, 27-22

A sudden sprees of accurate shooting in the last few minutes of play gave Baldwin High School its fourth successive basketball victory of the season Friday when the varsity took the game by an easy margin in a 27 to 22 tally. More difficulty was encountered by the Bruins in this tilt than in any of their previous contests this season.

Last Opens Scoring

The last quarter gave the alumni a definite edge. Although the varsity controlled the ball the greater part of the frame, its players erratic shooting and passing opened the way for the opposition to score five points. Ladd, center and captain of the alumni five, began the drive with a free throw after the first quarter and followed shortly afterwards with a field goal after dribbling the ball around the key. He scored first for the varsity by making good a dog shot after a pass from Hunter. After the game playing guard for the graduates, scored the only other tally of the grade school at the assembly. The fifth and sixth grades of the school sang several group songs and heard recitations and poems by class members.

It Might Be Worse

"My sister is engaged to a widower with four children who plays the violin. Can you imagine anything worse?"

Ratus Explains Wireless

"Mose, can you explain wireless telephony to me?"

The fourth, fifth and sixth grades of the school sang several group songs and heard recitations and poems by class members.

Varsity Wins

The varsity five took the basket with regularity from the start of the first frame and soon recaptured the lead. Schwartz and Hunt began the Bruins scoring immediately after the whistle with a field goal apiece. The grade school line-out, but failed to check the rally, for Hunt scored on a free shot immediately after play was resumed, and this was followed by a field goal toss from Fred Schwartz's hands.

Strategy

Customs Inspector—Hold on young lady, what have you to declare?

Sweetness—Oh, Mr. Inspector, I declare you handsomer than any man I saw during my two months' stay abroad.

Inspector—Er—ah—hurry up, please, my time is short, give someone else a chance.—Borden Cities Star.

So—no—more!

Father—Just the small boy, what is a pork barrel?

Mrs. Smith—you are entirely too inquisitive!

"Don't you know?"

"Only in a general way. It's an institution; more or less mythical, to enable a Congressman to show his folks that he isn't bringing home the bacon."—Washington Evening Star.

While playing in his home one evening, the small son of a Michigan family was cut severely on the head. There was no time to lose, as the boy was bleeding profusely.
