

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM

Bridge Tournament Sponsored by Village Players

Between productions, members of the Village Players improve the shining hours with various divisions. The latest of these is a duplicate bridge tournament which will be held at the Playhouse, Monday evening, at 8 P. M.

Each member will select his own partner, with whom he will remain throughout the evening. Reservations for tickets may be made with the committee, including Charles J. Shan and Frank S. Packard.

Assisting in the committee in charge of arrangements are Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., Mrs. J. Z. Lander, Mrs. Julian Case, Mrs. Cecil Charlton, Mrs. Harry Mack, Mrs. D. G. Murray, Mrs. A. L. Hogue, Mrs. Milton F. Coulson, and Mrs. Robert N. Woodruff.

Village Mart Called Success by Chairman

Birmingham's second annual Village Mart held at the Community House Friday and Saturday was declared a success today by Mrs. F. B. Ester, the general chairman.

"Each organization participating in the Mart joins me in pronouncing it a success," Mrs. Ester said, "and all are well satisfied with the amounts collected by each booth. The various Booth chairmen are eager to make plans for next year, so that it may continue to be an annual event."

The doll booth, which was supported by contributions from all the other booths for the purpose of raising money for the mill and shoe funds at the Community House cleared $55.

The white elephant booth operated each year to pay the expenses of the Mart, accomplished its purpose this year, Mrs. Ester said.

League of Nations Member To Speak In Birmingham

After five months spent in Geneva at the League of Nations, she served on two committees. Mrs. Harold P. Miller of Detroit has returned to report on her experience.

She will come to Birmingham to address a joint meeting of the Birmingham League of Women Voters and the American Association of University Women to be held at the home of Mrs. Delos Fowler of Quanton road on Dec. 14 at 2 P. M.

While at the League of Nations Mrs. Miller was the only American member of the Committee for the Proper Dissemination of League of Nations News to the World to which she was appointed by the New York League of Nations Association.

Before going to Geneva, she served for two years as president of the Women's Council for Education in International Relations in Detroit.

The meeting in Birmingham will be sponsored by the committees on international relations representing both organizations. Mrs. Charles I. Shan will act as chairman of the day.

Assisting as hostesses for the League of Women Voters will be Mrs. Frank S. Packard, Mrs. Edward L. Bryant and Mrs. George Heeman. For the A. U. W., the hostesses will be Mrs. Donald T. Stanton, Mrs. Francis F. McKinney and Mrs. Don M. Hawley.

Each member of both organizations is requested to bring a toy to be distributed among needy families.

Kingswood School Students Will Give Vaudeville Show And Carnival, Saturday

Kingswood School auditorium will assume a festive air Saturday evening when members of the junior and senior classes will present a carnival and vaudeville show to raise funds for their school's athletic needs.

More than 3000 invitations have been issued for the affair, which will include the parents and friends of students and the trustees and members of the Board of Directors.

Under the direction of a committee including Miss Henry, chairman; Edna H. Bell, Virginia Hunt and Annie Callender, a social program has been planned to comprise a vaudeville show, radio sketch and fashion show.

In the "ring" will be the westerns of Betty Bird and Sam Davis, with Dittie Otter to be the referee. Assisting as referee will be Elizabeth Nichols, Barbara Stoppel, Anne Henry and Sally Hunter.

What the audience will see on the second part of the program, it will be hard to say, as the voice of Phyllis Anglin and the voice of a modern dancer, Virginia Williams, impersonating Ruth Haring, will sing several vocal selections. After the manner of Walter Russell, Doris Saffrin will introduce "Kingswood News," and as the "Doll Sister," she will sing "The Doll Sister." There will be also a fortune telling booth with Marian Green in charge, a booth where "radio music" will be cut, and a refreshment booth.

Among the younger girls who will take tickets, announce the vaudeville act and assist in various ways, clad in costumes as citizens and Dutch boys and girls, are Mrs. John E. Wooten, Mrs. Edna, Barbara LeGrove, Cynthia Adams, Jane Daisley, Mary Hibbard, Mrs. Ann Muzzy and Elizabeth Nichols.

Muriel Wermuth is chairman of the committee on invitations and decorations, assisted by Alta Winslow, Elizabeth Wallace, Mary Margaret Wallace, Mary Cook and Louise Wright.

Gail Wilcox is chairman of the committee on posters, drawings and silhouettes, which includes Mrs. B. B. Butler and Catherine and Jeanne Wilson.
