

CLEANERS TOP STROUP TEAM

Achieve Rank As Title Contenders With Easy 39-15 Win

Vogue Cleaners practically assured themselves of a shot at the Y. M. C. A. basketball league title by defeating the Stroup's Market outfit with unexpected ease, 39 to 15, on the Barnum floor Wednesday night of last week.

Their attack led by Grace, their flashy center, the Cleaners took command from the opening whistle, and established a 19 to 9 lead at the mid-way mark, and continued to step up their advantage throughout the last half. Grace scored 13 points. The losers seemed to be an entirely different team from that which had beaten the Kurth Realtors the week before.

The Cleaners' victory followed forfeit by the DeMolays of their encounter with the Kurth team at the end of the first half. The Realtors had rolled up a 40 to 17 lead in the first two periods.

The Fellowship Club had no trouble to stay in the league running by subduing Eastern Michigan, 51 to 12, in the finale.

AMATEURS IN 8 FAST BOUTS

Furious Fighting Marks Golden Glove Exhibition At Cranbrook

First class amateur boxing made stirring debut in Birmingham Saturday night, in 16 youthful combats in the National Golden Glove Tournament met in eight furious bouts before a large crowd in the Cranbrook School gymnasium.

Only one knock-out was scored, but every fight brought forth its full quota of clever boxing and hard slugging. The show was handled by W. Harry Johnston, president and boxing coach at Cranbrook. In the first bout, Stokes of Christ Church A. C. outpointed Nathan Brown of Franklin Street Settlement. In the second, W. Skeegi won the decision over R. Skeets, and in the third, W. E. Zehlich, runner-up in the first W. Y. C. Golden Glove Tournament, was given a bad whipping by Eric Wyrod, defeated Young in the fourth battle at 140 pounds. The fifth bout saw the lone knock-out, Mitchell, Michigan flyweight title holder, outpointed Ross in the seventh fight. In the finale, Burnett barely edged out a decision over King, whom he had previously knocked out in the New York tourney.

The sixth got the best of the evening, resulted in Maroney, Detroit city and state lightweight champion, slugging Wello to a standstill after three rounds of vicious fighting. In the final, Burnett barely edged out a decision over King, whom he had previously knocked out in the New York tourney.

Marionette Expert Will Speak Here

Hilary D. C. Pepler, director of St. Dominic's Press in England, on his way home from opening of an exhibit of his typography in Chicago, will stop in Birmingham Friday, at the request of Paul McPharlin, 155 Wimbledon drive.

One of Mr. Pepler's activities is the performance of marionettes in Diechtling Common Sussex, where his press is located, and he will give a talk on this phase of his work to all who are interested in the subject of marionettes at Mr. McPharlin's home Friday evening. Mr. McPharlin will perform the puppet "St. George and the Dragon" in Mr. Pepler's honor. His talk will be given under the auspices of the Marionette Fellowship of Detroit.

MICHIGAN as a Winter Resort

Michigan, widely known as a summer vacationland, is becoming recognized as an unexcelled winter playground.

It offers abundant opportunities for the enjoyment of exhilarating winter sports . . . innumerable hills for skiing and tobogganing . . . thousands of lakes for skating and ice-boating . . . forests and rivers for hunting and fishing . . . all easily accessible over fine roads and railways, and by air.

It is in the interest of all who reside in Michigan to contemplate the winter attractions of our state, and to call them to the attention of others.

Michigan is a great state to live in and a great state to visit. Wherever you go in Michigan — at work or play — Long Distance telephone service will keep you in constant touch with home and office.
