Birmingham Couple Speak Marriage Vows

A pretty ceremony uniting Miss Bernice Kresge and Mr. K. Herman Boyce in marriage, was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Kresge, of Frank street the evening of Jan. 26. Rev. David Leon Woodward of the First Baptist Church read the vows in the presence of members of the family and 25 guests.

The bride wore an afternoon gown of rose-colored lace, and her only attendant, Miss Grace Boyce, was attired in an afternoon gown of green lace. Samuel Dance attended Mr. Boyce as best man. An informal reception followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyce are residing on Beverly road in Berkeley. Mr. Boyce came to Birmingham four years ago from South Carolina, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Boyce, now reside. Mrs. Boyce is a graduate of Baldwin High School.

Among the guests at the wedding were Mrs. Evelyn Green, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mrs. Bernard Fossand and her daughter, Miss Mary Miles of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Florence Kennedy and Miss Ruth Cochran, all of Berkeley, Mrs. A. Rupert and Alton Chandler of Detroit, Miss Molly Boale, and Miss Jane Porter of Birmingham.

Committee Appointed To Nominate Officers

A nominating committee to draw up a new slate of officers before the annual meeting on March 2 was appointed at a meeting of the Women's Literary Club at Baldwin Public Library Tuesday.

The committee includes Mrs. J. H. Rosso, Mrs. Marietta Mills and Mrs. H. S. Evans. The program of the American Indian, was supplemented by an exhibit of pictures representing Indian life and baskets loaned by Mrs. Edgar A. Parks of Pine street. The program was held under auspices of the literature department, with Mrs. Fred S. Ross presiding, assisted by Mrs. John S. Lambie.

Speaking of the civil rights of Indians, Mrs. Nancy B. Thomas told the club that at the time of Columbus more than 1,000,000 Indians inhabited this country, and that there are today 332,397 living in the United States. The Indian was given the right of citizenship in 1924, Mrs. Thomas reminded her listeners.
