VOGUE TRIMS FELLOWSHIP 'S

Cleaners Administer Second Drubbing, 21-12; Kurth's, Stroup's Win

The Fellowship Club quintet, a serious contender during the first half of the season for the Y. M. C. A. basketball league crown, took its second tumble in as many weeks on the Barnum School floor Wednesday night of last week when it fell before the onslaught of the fast-climbing Vogue Cleaners, 21 to 12.

The previous week, the Fellowship cagers had bowed to the league-leading Kurth Realtors, 15 to 14. As a result of last week's tussle, Fellowship and Vogue Cleaners changed places on the second and third rungs of the loop ladder.

The Cleaners had things well in hand all the way, ending the first half with a 15 to 6 advantage, and keeping Fellowship's sharp-shooters well covered.

The Kurth team made it five straight by dispensing of the Eastern Michigan quintet in the second game of the evening, 31 to 24, while Stroup's Market, chiefly by virtue of some nice shooting by Symons, left guard, upset the DeMolays in the finale, 34 to 20.

"Love" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, Jan. 31. Among the Bible citations was this passage (Luke 7:47): "Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little." Correlative passages read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, included the following (p. 365): "If the Scientist has enough Christly affection to win his own pardon, and such commendation as the Magdalen gained from Jesus, then he is Christian enough to practice scientifically and deal with his patients compassionately; and the result will correspond with the spiritual intent."
