Spirit Of "Gay 90's" Recalled By Mock Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Hoover Holton of North Woodruff celebrated the recent anniversary Saturday evening at a unique party and picnic dinner served in the lawn in the rear of the home with the picturesque setting of hollyhocks, rock garden and grape arbor as a charming background.

The 24 guests were carried skillfully and gracefully back into the spirit of the "Gay 90's" with old-fashioned dancing and a few and hilariously funny mock wedding in the actual costume of the period.

Mr. and Mrs. Gladys Perry as the bride mended to the altar to meet L. C. Higginbotham, the bride groom, while Mrs. Holton resplendent in rustling silk as the maternal mother of the bride, gathered blushing daughters away, and Mrs. Clyde Bennett tripped lightly into the scene as ring bearer.

Mrs. Holton, in swallow-tail red, performed the ceremony. After the evening was spent with never a non-trump bid or a card game approach to mar the atmosphere of leg o' mutton dresses, horsehoses, and celluloid collars, Mr. and Mrs. Holton's guests were from Detroit and Birmingham.
