

BARNUM WINS CINDER MEET

Repeats 1931 Victory Over Adams and Baldwin On Track

Barnum School trackmen repeated their victory of last year by defeating Adams and Baldwin Junior High School in the fourth annual all-city cinder meet last Thursday at Pierce Field. The Barnum team stacked up a total of 89 points, Adams took second with 61, and Baldwin, which won the trophy in 1929 and 1930, finished a bad third with 47.

The light division of the meet was won by Adams, with the Barnum team second and Baldwin again in third place. A total of 12 records were broken, the winning Barnum team breaking also Adams' four and Baldwin two. William Bell, of the winning Maize and Blue team, was the lightest man, taking two firsts, he participated in the light-weight division.

Two lightweights and four heavyweights were tied for the second place honors, each taking one first and a second. These included Pettibone and Birchong of the lightweights, and Mix, Minting,

WOMAN HURT IN 3-CAR COLLISION

Motorist Faces Reckless Driving Charge After Crash Here Friday

James Bayles, 39 years old, of 156 West Nine-Mile road, Farmdale, will be tried in Justice Field's back court Saturday morning in a charge of reckless driving in a three-car collision on Woodward avenue, Detroit, which occurred Friday morning on Woodward avenue at Lincoln avenue.

Witnesses told police that Bayles rounded the turn at an excessive rate of speed, skidded and crashed into the front end of Mrs. Rutledge's car as it was travelling south on Woodward.

The impact caused Mrs. Rutledge's car to swerve to the right and crash into a third car parked at the curb, driven by Miss Winifred Sewell, 19 years old, 528 Frank street, who had stopped to fix a tire on his way to work.
