

MIDGETS LOSE, CLING TO LEAD

Even though they lost a game Wednesday of last week to the Tigers, the Midgets managed to stay ahead of the race in the Commercial Division of the Y. M. C. A. football circuit.

Additional Reports On Village-City Question

Published here in the last of a series of tabular reports, supplementary to the principal report of a committee of the Property Owners' Division of the Birmingham Real Estate Board recommending that Birmingham be divided into a village and a city.

The major report and the other sub-reports have been published in preceding issues of The Eccentric.

The Village of Birmingham will eventually have to be incorporated as a city.

We have a population according to the 1920 census, in excess of 100,000.

Each city may provide for the refunding of money advanced or paid on special assessments imposed.

The city charter may provide for transportation facilities, including light, heat, power, transportation and sewage disposal.
