Villagers and the Village

The dignity and the honor of America's judiciary shall never be dragged in the dust—James W. Taylor, of Berwyn road, has his own opinion on the Exchange Club meeting recently Oscar Peterson introduced David Levinson as a member. He referred to him as "our newest member, David Levinson." Immediately Mr. Taylor suggested to his fast-to-a-point of judicial etiquette (for Mr. Taylor last spring was elected to the office of Justice of the Peace here), "Hold on there, President Oscar," he demanded "Say Justice Levinson, if you please."

Harry S. Starr, former village manager, of North street, is particularly liked to rub forty into a five-ounce trout rod, and lots of fish surging in his breast. On each occasion he is likely to burst forth into song—of a kind. This Wanderer has often observed the timbre of Mr. Starr's voice. It crackles, it syncopates, it ripples in a queer quality of pitch—before this pitch hangs in the air. You have heard how a famous violinist who gazes upon a piece of music, exclaimed, "If I could find the tonal pitch of that bridge I would snap it in two with my violin." Some such fond hope must have dominated Starr's voice for years for, it is reported from certain sources, he can find the pitch of some half-burnt, weatherbeaten pine trees and, by singing in a crackling, syncopated tone, cause the dead trees to fall to the earth. He is now engaged in the pitch required to cause fish to leap into a boat.

TIRE BUILDER WINS AT Indianapolis 13th CONSECUTIVE YEAR

Members of the Birmingham Exchange Club are planning to attend in a group the New York Tiger baseball game at Navin field next Tuesday, their regular meeting day. Arrangements for the trip were made at last Tuesday's meeting.

Two bicycles picked up by police officers in the past few days are waiting to be claimed by their young owners at police headquarters in the Municipal Building, this Wanderer learns. One, with a red frame, was found at Yorkshire in the morning. The other, an older bike, has a black frame.

Members of the Birmingham Exchange Club are planning to attend in a group the New York Tiger baseball game at Navin field next Tuesday, their regular meeting day. Arrangements for the trip were made at last Tuesday's meeting.

Several basements in the section were reported flooded. Although light rainfall can be accommodated by present drains, the water in recent years, which flooded the basements under the Grand Truck grade separation near the new depot to a depth of five feet.

Two cars which attempted to force their way through the water became stranded and had to be pulled out. One car was stalled at the separation to traffic around Big Beaver and Fourteen Mile roads.

Lighting at some time during the week-end burned out both of the village's sewage disposal pumps, Mr. Parry said.

Records Threatened In State Auto Race

DETROIT, June 2.—All records for speed out of the track track are expected to fall when the starting field of 14 cars gets away for the 100-mile Indianapolis championship race on the state fair track here Sunday, June 5.

All of the 14 cars named in the Indianapolis are entered. This means that Fred Frame, who rode to glory and some $30,000 in prize and fan money, will be one of the qualifiers trying to land the $100,000 prize.

Never in the history of the Detroit race, says the management, has the field been so noteworthy. Not alone the elite list of money winners at Indianapolis, but all of the big drivers who cracked up the quality of their driving in the coming, and when the entries close at midnight tonight it is believed there will be 48 cars named to try out.

W. D. Eckenburg of Detroit, who has run the Indianapolis race for 16 years, will handle the Detroit championship, which carries more than $5,000 in prize money and $70 points towards the 1932 speedway title.

Hills Men Arrested On Drunk Charges

Frank S. Aho of Bloomfield Hills was arrested for drunk driving, and two companions, J. J. Dahli and Arthur Nau, also of Bloomfield Hills, were arrested on charges of being drunk and disorderly by Birmingham police Sgt. E. J. G. when they were arrested last Tuesday.

Auto paid a fine of $50, while Dahli and Nau were fined $15 each.

The average family annually consumes approximately 11 1/2 pounds of sugar, eight pounds of flour and 40 pounds of coffee.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY
 Harold Corson, village engineer, "If people would stop to consider how much sugar and actual cash is lost by basement flooding and such other inconveniences, the blocking of traffic at the East Maple grade separation by Thursday afternoon's heavy storm, his the section east of Adams road they would realize that the contemplated East road drain would pay for itself in a very short time."
