Mrs. Donald U. Batickwick with Mr. Batickwick, moved to Kenilworth, Ill., recently, from their former home in Birmingham. Arrived Monday to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher D. Richards on Vaughn road.

As fashionable colonies have adapted roller skating as a favored sport this summer, hosts and guests will be merry in spite of the fact that there is some talk of a depression about town. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Gault of Cranbrook were among the first in the Hills to indulge in the hobby when they invited 24 friends to join them at dinner at their home Monday evening, later taking their guests skating. Those in the party included Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Koppel, Mr. and Mrs. J. Rodney Weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lytle, Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. Smith, Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Aulerbach, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. W. Smith, and Mrs. Henry Scripps Booth.

Miss Mary Eyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Jordan of Baldwin avenue, with her sister, Miss Clayton, left Monday for Washington, D. C., and Dover, Del., to be gone a fortnight. While in the capital, they will spend some time with Mrs. Gordon's mother, Mrs. Fanni Gordon, and in Dover will be guests of Mrs. Gordon's aunt, Mrs. Margaret Peterson, and of Gov. and Mrs. C. Douglas Buck. Mrs. Gordon is a niece of Governor Buck.
