Here's An Easy Way To Make Some Money

15.00 IN PRIZES

Every day, from the time you arise in the morning until you retire at night, you use NATIONALLY ADVERTISED PRODUCTS in the things you eat—the things you wear—the pleasures you enjoy. You know what they are, of course. You are able to remember some of the slogans or phraces that each manufacturer uses in the sale of his goods. Most of such advertised products are sold by Birmingham merchants, many of whom are listed on this page.

To WIN A PRIZE just write, in 500 words or less, a sort of "day's diary" in which you mention the names of the items, with their advertised slogans, that you use. You must confine them to those sold by merchants isted on this page. On a separate sheet of paper, accompanying your diary entry, just identify the names of the products with the names of the merchants here where you may purchase the items.

PRIZE WINNERS WILL BE ANNOUNCED THROUGH THE ECCENTRIC JULY

14. Here is an idea of how you may start your diary: "Ho, hum, how great it is to sleep on a.....bed, (give slogan here) and then climb into a cool suit of ... underwear, (slogan here), completing my wardrobe with ... (mention items desired, plus slogans) and then brushing my teeth with ... etc., etc." (You may enlarge upon these items, or confine yourself more to the breakfass and other meals, your home furnishings, motor cars, clothing, radios, etc., etc.)

YOUR LOCAL MERCHANTS INVITE YOU TO DROP IN AND ASK THEM ABOUT THEIR NATIONALLY ADVERTISED PRODUCTS.
