Community House Announces Plans For Celebrating Birthday Anniversary

Cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the social events planned in observance of the second-birthday anniversary of the Birmingham Community House, Mar. 17. In the afternoon on that day a reception and tea will be held, and in the evening the House will be thrown open for a dance.

Mrs. H. J. Klingler, as first vice-president of the Community House Board of Directors, will serve as general chairman in charge of arrangements. Mrs. F. C. Etter is chairman of the committee arranging for the reception, and Mrs. Joseph P. Little is chairman of the committee in charge of the dance.

Thursday Musical To Be Represented On Convention Program.

Three representatives of the Thursday Musicals of Birmingham are to attend the 1937 annual convention of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs which will be held in Battle Creek, April 13-16.

They are Mrs. Gerald J. McMechan, president and delegate of the local club; Mrs. James Lee Oliver of Villa road and Mrs. Norman Lyle of Yorkshire road. Both Mrs. Oliver and Mrs. Lyle will take part in the convention program.

Among the outstanding events will be the Club Presidents' breakfast, April 14, which will be followed by an open forum led by Mrs. Lyle. The same afternoon Michigan composers will be honored by a special program, of which Mrs. S. Kessel will be in charge. Mrs. Oliver will sing several soprano solos on this program, which will also include G. S. Siano, Detroit pianist, and Miss Catherine Tinsman of Pontiac, pianist.

The convention will open Wednesday, April 13, with registration and a meeting of the state executive board. The opening banquet will be held Wednesday evening, and the Past Presidents' dinner on Thursday evening.

A MacDowell Breakfast will open Friday's program, which will be followed by a concert by the Highland Madrigal Club, and a banquet for delegates. The convention will close Saturday with a Junior Day program.

The Delphian Study Class met Tuesday at the home of Miss Adeline S. Woodworth, 2198 E. Maple avenue, for the subject of discussion and study was "The Punic Wars." A tour of the city was made Saturday on the date of the next meeting.
