SCREEN, STAGE ..AND STUDIO..

By AUDEE ENCE

Polo casualties in screen colony have brought disfavor on game among producers. As result Will Rogers is first to feel strong arm of authority in matter of playing while on contract.

Will has made verbal agreement with high-ups to give up polo as pastime while in production on any of his pictures. Film powers got excited about risks taken by stars, endangering production costs and schedule, after Joan Bennett fell from horse and held up filming.

To cap climax, Rogers came limping in from polo accident and hobbled through picture. Then producers laid down law, and got verbal promise from star to remain out of game.

Longings

In reply to question "What people lead most interesting lives?" flicker stars recently revealed secret longings outside of profession. Claudette Colbert picked school teacher's career. Richard Arlen thought newspaper men have "most exciting" time. Nancy Carroll's vote was for M. D., Lilyan Tashman, steamship captain; and policeman's career was most appealing to Melvyn Douglas. Pauline Frederick was only star to pick own job.

BIRMINGHAM THEATER ATTRACTIONS

Today—Ann Harding in "Prestige."

Friday and Saturday—Wheeler F. Woolsey in "Caught Plastered", and "The Secret Witness" with William Collier, Jr., and Zasu Pitts.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday—"Hell Divers", with Wallace Beery and Clarke Gable.

Wednesday—"Stepping Sisters."

STARS OF RADIOLAND

Gladys Britain

Three years ago Gladys Britain invaded New York from the middle west as a concert singer, to study under a scholarship. Recently she tried radio. Now she's featured in a new series of dramatic and musical highlights which is being widely broadcast. Miss Britain is a soprano. Born in St. Louis, she made her home in Kansas City for many years.

New Wrinkle

Plans are under way by Fanchon and Marco to open first radio theater in N.Y.C. Negotiations are being made for taking over studio's film house and changing policy to show only radio attractions on stage in addition to films. All talent will be taken from ranks of CBS ether entertainers.

Bargain

To drum up business, cafe in Hollywood offers "all you can eat", chance to see Zasu Pitts and Thelma Todd broadcasting from restaurant, and free ticket to picture show, for consideration of 45 cents.

—o—

COMPETITION

New Yorkers are taking Lenten season seriously and staying away from shows. Churches are full while theaters suffer slump, according to Broadway authorities at observation posts. Decline of legit business in Lent this season is said to be greatest in many years. Seven shows closed in week.

Detroit Theaters

Vincente Escudero, Spanish dancer, will occupy stage Thursday and Saturday evenings at Cass. Appearing with him are Carmita and Carmela. Escudero boasts Spanish Gypsy blood.

Tolstoi's "Redemption," first of two Russian dramas featuring Ben-Ami as guest artist, opened at Civic Monday. Miss Bonstelle has role of Sophie Garenina, mother of Victor. Production is first in English in Detroit in many years.

"Lost Sheep," lively comedy by Belford Forrest, is attraction at Lafayette.

Life's Little Laughs

In Other Words "Yes"

Cora—Would you marry a man for his money?

Dora—Not exactly. But I'd want my husband to have a lovely disposition, and if he were with out money he'd very likely be worried and ill-natured.

The Touch System

"Bobby, your face wants washing. Did you look at it in the glass this morning?"

"No, mother, but it seemed all right when I felt it."

Not Seeing Well

Caller—Richard is a charming little fellow. He told me just now that I was pretty.

Hostess—Yes, we have been worried about his eyes, I'm afraid he'll have to wear glasses.

Hollow Triumph

"Is it true that Miss Acrid made a grand slam at your bridge party yesterday?"

"Yes, but the woman she slammed had already gone home."

Necessary Preliminary

She—You should speak to father first. You don't expect him to make the advances, do you?

DeBroke—Well, if he doesn't, I don't see how we can get married.

Taking The Count

Wife—Henry is my rouge twice removed.

Jealous Husband—Three times.

But Dad Didn't Laugh

Father—Your banker tells me that you have overdrawn your account. Aren't you ashamed of yourself?

Son—Yes, sir; I acknowledge that it was not all to my credit.

A Plea For Extension

Wife—I've made up my mind what I shall do. Each time you get drunk I shall refuse to speak to you for a week.

Husband—Make it a month, dear. You know I'm not a heavy drinker.—Humorist.
