REGISTRATION NOTICE FOR Bloomfield Township SPRING ELECTION

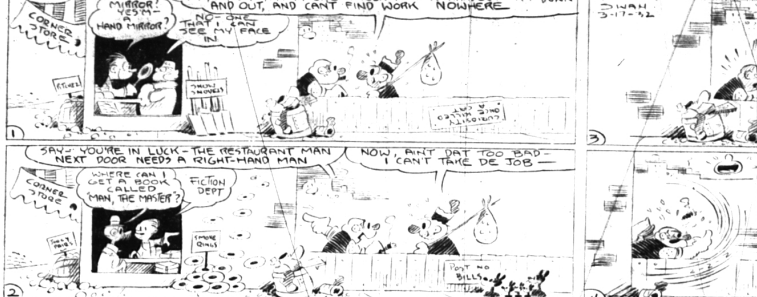

MONDAY, APRIL 4th, 1932
To vote at this election all persons must be registered in the Township Office by Saturday, March 26, 1932...

JAMES V. BAYLEY, Township Clerk.

ETTA KETT His Lost Chance

HIGH PRESSURE PETE One on Hank

she shouted at the foot of the stairs. "Yes, ma'am," came the reply. "I can't hear you."

Well, What Would You Do? Excited Old Lady Passenger took her seat in a man fallen overboard. Quack! Throw him a parachute—Pissing! Shut!

Turn About Professor (severely)—I'll wait until that young man stops making a fool of himself, and then I'll begin.

Hands Off! Fresh House-hunter (to pretty maid)—Are you to be let with him?—No, sir; I'm to be let alone.—Bystander

Out of the Frying Pan "Doesn't Jim ever get tired of his wife's continued sickness?" "I think not. He says when she's good natured at the stings."

Not as Advertised Customer—I wanted to return this book I bought, "Stories For All Occasions." Bookseller—What's the matter with it? Customer—It's a fake. There's nothing there for a man to tell his wife when he gets home at 2 P. M.

Life's Little Laughs
Including the Scandinavian "I understand your friend, the story writer, had a very exclusive funeral." "Yes, all rites reserved."

Fait Accompli "Last night I met a girl who had never been kissed." "Really? I'd like to meet her." "But she doesn't exist now."—Nepelsplatz.

Nick Bit Of Work Prim Old Aunt—Edith, the way you flirted with that young man was terrible. Pretty Niece—Why, auntie, I'm sure he thought I did it very well.

Not A Loud Color A woman was having the upper rooms of her house painted by an artist and she fancied that the painter was slacking on the job. "Painter, are you working?"
