Players' Dance Calls Forth Round Of Dinner Parties

Dinner parties large and small will precede the "Inappropriate Dances" to be given by the Village Players at the Playhouse Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald U. Bathrick of Southfield road have invited guests to dinner in honor of their house guests for the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hawk of Battle Creek, included in the party will be Mr. and Mrs. W. A. John, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Booth.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving E. Babcock of Lone Pine road will also be hosts to a group of friends for dinner, later attending the Players' dance.

The informal pot-luck dinner seems to be particularly favored and each day, as the week advances one hears of another affair planned on "the spur of the moment."

Mr. and Mrs. Sam M. Garber of Bloomfield village will entertain at a pot-luck supper a group of friends, including Mr. and Mrs. W. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert F. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Brock, Miss Betty Brock, Capt. and Mrs. H. Layland Towle and Alwood Woodruff.

Another group will give a pot-luck supper at the home of Mr.

Popular Easterner Is Honor Guest At Many Affairs

The visit of Mrs. William A. Barber of New York City to her native Birmingham, Ala., has been the occasion of many affairs held in her honor. On both Friday and Saturday evenings, Dr. and Mrs. Gordon entertained at dinner with Mrs. Barber as the honored guest. The first dinner party, Friday, the guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mack, Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Lander and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Herdich.

At the dinner preceding the performance of the Village Players Saturday evening, the guests were Rev. and Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth, Mr. and Mrs. Sam M. Garber, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Dewley, Dr. and Mrs. George P. Raynald and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Eden.

Surprising how reasonable! Dell's Hemstitching Shop, Levington building, (phone 1145) Tea canister 10 yards at only 6 cents a yard.

Modern woman glorifies her "crowning glory" with a permanent wave. Ask the Powder Puff Beauty Salon, Washok building, about this special offer. The phone number is 670.

Actually, it's cheaper to eat out on Sunday than to stay at home if you patronize the Pure Food Restaurant, 116 North Woodward.

This early spring weather means another tennis season will soon be on. A new racket, hand finished and perfectly strung by G. L. Ash, 208 Oakland avenue, will improve your game considerably. Mr. Ash, who is a tennis expert himself, makes an interesting hobby of doing high grade repairing and finishing work on tennis and badminton rackets.

Have you ridden in the 1932 Pontiac? Courteous demonstrators are always available at the Oliver Cadillac Company, 234 North Woodward, to prove to you how comfortable and easy to drive the new cars—in both six and eight cylinder models—really are.

An Inner-Spring Mattress is a guarantee of sound sleep, and gives you the opportunity to spend this week at $12 at the Trux Furniture Company in the Briggs Building.

With so many people ill these days, the opportunity to enjoy friendship is limitless. The variety of pointed plans and fresh flowers at Howard Bell's, 928 South Woodward, makes it possible to suit any taste.

What a relief to wearers of glasses to know that it's no longer of any advantage to use the dangerous "drops" in eye examinations! In fact, Dr. J. W. Jones, Birmingham optometrist, the use of "drops" is an obsolete and inferior practice, thanks to the modern instruments and methods of all progressive eye specialists.

Time for house-cleaning is almost here. When you look your house over, you will find windows, walls and woodwork need washing. There are also floors to be waxed and polished. Did you know the Kwick Kleeners, 737 Humphrey street, will do all this for you? Their phone number is 1668.

Housewives in town are chattering about new ideas in inexpensive bedspreads, drapes, curtains, tables and lampshades made at the Finger Sewing Machine Shop, W. Maple avenue.

You will enjoy relaxing in the Marguerite Beauty Salon (phone 905) while skillful hands improve your charms. You can have a shampoo, wave and manicure for $2.

It's time to spruce up! Stop in at Hicks Hat Shop, 135 E. Maple avenue, to see spring hats in the latest model. New brims and quills and flower trim will add, very smart.

You wouldn't believe it, but it's true! At the Maybelle Beauty Salon, 92 Pierce street, you can get both wave and shampoo for 75c. Phone 9063 for appointments.—Adv.

Mrs. Charlotte Wilson of New York has returned to her home after a fortnight's visit with Mrs. A. C. Mudge of Hamilton avenue, W. Maple avenue.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Mrs. Bernice Fox of Toledo, O., and C. E. Smith, Feb. 18 in Trinity Church, Toledo. The couple will be at home on Puritan road next week.

ABOUT TOWN

A new frock! A ray print! A chic suit for spring! Whatever you plan, be sure to consult Mrs. Jeannette Wolston, 385 E. Maple avenue. Her phone number is 2136.

Before you redecorate this spring, stop at the Home Decorating Company, 83 and 85, Second street, and let Mr. Flower give you expert advice combined with reasonable prices.

Instead of a session with the car sponsor on "Brooks' day out," call 9102, the Shadowlawn Tea room, 532 Brookside drive, for dinner reservations.

"The Fundamentals in Art" will be discussed by Frank L. Allen, director of the Academy of Art at the Cranbrook Foundation, before members of the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women, next Wednesday at 8 P. M.

The Branch will meet at the Academy, where a business meeting and election of officers will be held preceding the program. At the close of the meeting, members will give an informal tea with Dr. Katharine Rogers Adams, principal of Kingswood School, as the honored guest. Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth is in charge of arrangements for the tea.

She Will Be Hostess For Dance On Friday

The charm of the romance between a beautiful woman of the stage and a celebrated man of letters as revealed in "The Terry and Bernard Shaw—A Correspondence," was reviewed by Mrs. J. F. Garwood Monday afternoon before members of the Current Literature Reading Circle at the Baldwin Public Library.

"There are three good reasons for selecting the letters of Terry and Shaw for literature club reading," Mrs. Garwood said. "If you have a flair for the dramatic and if that pertains to the stage, you will find much of interest in this volume. If you are a student of contemporary drama and its development, you will find it valuable."

"If you are just one of the gardeners of humans who like to do a little eavesdropping upon the love affairs of celebrated folk, you will find a human element throughout the letters. There is a genuine charm about this paper love-affair between the radiant woman of the stage and the serious man we call Shaw."

The group which meets on alternate Mondays is led by Mrs. Victor H. Cahalane, and is sponsored by the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women. The English novel, "Broome Stages," by Clemence Dane, will be reviewed at the next meeting Mar. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lee of Oakland avenue have as their house guests this week, Mrs. J. Bergstrom of Bay City.
