

CLUB AND PERSONAL NEWS

Banking Group Holds Dinner Dance At Golf Club

A dinner-dance for more than 250 guests was given at the Birmingham Golf Club Friday evening by the officers and employees of the Highland Park State Bank...

Guests on this occasion, which marked the first gathering of the four institutions, included the wives and friends of officers and employees...

Mr. Maurice, who resides on Manor road, is president of the Highland Park State Bank and the Highland Park Trust Company...

During the past year Mr. Gardner whose home is on Aspen road, was elected president of the Guardian Bank of Royal Oak...

Births Rev. and Mrs. David Leon Woodward of Bates street are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Carolyn Jean, Mar. 2.

Men's and Ladies' Hats Cleaned, Blocked & Dyed. Close and Spot Cleaning. Birmingham Hat Shop and Shoe Shining Parlor. E. Maple - Just off Woodward.

You Always Save at GUNNINGHAM'S DRUG SPECIALS $150 Kepler's Cod Liver Oil and Malt 93c

Save on Toiletries $1.00 Hind's Almond Lotion 67c 60c ITALIAN BALM 46c 50c PREP 39c 50c NEOPLASMA 89c 50c IDENT TOOTH PASTE 29c 50c PACQUIN'S HAND CREAM 79c 50c STRASSKA'S TOOTH PASTE 28c 35c Kleenex 21c

Gunningham's Cosmetics DRUG STORES Right Reserved to Limit Quantities Mail Orders Filled - Add 10% to Cover Cost of Postage

Literary Club Re-elects Its President For Second Term

Mrs. C. A. Bowlus was re-elected president of the Women's Literary Club to serve for another year, at the annual meeting held Tuesday in the First Presbyterian Church...

Of these, Mrs. H. H. Wellman was elected second vice-president, Mrs. Victor Peck, recording secretary, Mrs. Earl G. Potter, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. John S. Black was elected treasurer...

Mrs. Fred G. Crawford and Mrs. Stephan Mills are the new directors elected at this meeting, as was Mrs. Guy Jensen, the new auditor...

Mrs. Bowlus was elected by motion to represent the club as delegate to the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs...

The meeting was presided by Mrs. Norman Lytle. Members of the program committee also elected by ballot, include Mrs. M. M. Morgan, chairman, Mrs. Oscar Sabom and Mrs. George Hallett.

Mrs. Clarence Vliet, who served as president preceding Mrs. Bowlus at registration, and who has been unable to attend club events because of illness, was able to be present and was elected as the speakers' table as guest of honor.

Following the luncheon, the club held both its regular annual business session, with a brief program as an interlude, Miss Ivy Gertrude Young, dramatic reader and teacher of expression in Detroit, gave three readings including "Hymn To The Night" from Romeo and Juliet, "The Harbinger" by T. A. Daley, and "Mrs. Clyde's Pudding."

Miss Virginia Taylor of Southfield entertained a joint luncheon with Mrs. Lloyd Wheeler of Detroit, Thursday, at a white crystal shower in honor of Mrs. George Adams, who was formerly Miss Ruth Busby of Detroit.

Through a Woman's Eyes

The Woman From Whom People Edge Away. It was in the busy coils of a train on the way to Boston. They were sitting across the aisle from her—obviously, as the cyclic would say, husband and wife. The point is that he was edging away from her.

There was plenty of room on the seat for them both to be comfortable, for they were both thin. But there he was edging away from her until it seemed he must fall off the seat. And she was following him over.

I wondered whether she could be jabbing pins into him—but she was just talking. I did not hear what she was saying to him. Apparently it was not terribly abusive—it appeared that they had settled the argument and that she just could not let up. And it seemed to be this rather than what she was saying to him that was wearing into the man's bones and sending him as far away from her as he could get.

There are women like that—women who are wearing. They are in just wearing—so that you want to edge away from them almost, if necessary, to the brink of a precipice. Life with them is a constant process of attrition—you feel as though they were going to get you to the wall and then smother you. Why do they do it? It is nervousness or an exaggerated sense of thoroughness—or what? It is just as wearing on them as on the people with whom they live. And it is such a pity because it is so utterly a waste.

If that woman on the train had taken what was on her mind, said what she had to say and then been through with it, she would have been efficient. After all, in my argument it's what we have to say that counts—and the shorter we make it the stronger it is likely to be. But to keep at it—dragging—wearing—even after it is settled.

What's the use? It doesn't get anything but assurance that the wide spare around us as long as there is any place to which the other person can run. (Copyright by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.) "One of the most satisfying results I obtain in doing business with others is the feeling of personal responsibility that is shown me," a well known Birmingham man stated recently to a representative of The Eccentric. He was referring, at the time, to a specific piece of printing that The Eccentric had done for him. The Eccentric ever seeks to fulfill his responsibility to those it serves. adv-t

Teacher Of Dramatic Art To Open Classes

Miss Ivy Gertrude Young of Detroit, who gave dramatic readings before members of the Women's Literary Club at the annual meeting Tuesday, is making her debut to Birmingham as a teacher of dramatic art and expression.

For the past five years, she has been engaged in that capacity in Detroit, where she is associated with the Lewis Institute, and in Ohio. She is now enrolling pupils for classes which she will conduct in dramatic expression at the Community House.

100 Guests Attend Milk-Fund Benefit. More than 100 guests attended the bridge party given by the Parents-Teacher Association of the Pierce School for the benefit of the milk fund, at the Community House Friday evening.

Mrs. J. L. Thornberry, president, announces that 25 tables were filled. Those receiving prizes were, for first players, Mrs. Byron McNeill, Mrs. David Johnston, second, Mrs. Georgia Moore, third, Miss Bonnie Gilness, fourth, and Miss Peggy Haldaie, consolation prize.

Among the men, prizes were awarded to Jack Brown, first; Harmer C. Huston, second; Charles T. Beals, third; Byron McNeill, fourth; and Mahlon Stevens, consolation prize.

Miss Louise Shepard of Detroit spent the weekend as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice E. Carter of Ann Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Ross of Willis street have as their guests this week Mr. and Mrs. Adam Lowe of Lakewood, O., Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Wellor of Ann Street, Mich., and their engagement of their daughter, Gwendolyn, to Charles Chase of Detroit. The wedding will take place Mar. 15.

Mrs. George Daniels of Lincoln avenue entertained at tea Monday afternoon. Among the guests were Mrs. Clarence Hemstreet, Mrs. Harry Welby, Mrs. T. E. Reaney, Mrs. Della Waterbury, Mrs. L. R. Mix, Mrs. George Singers, Mrs. R. J. Taylor, Mrs. Winifred Burkman, Mrs. Arthur Leet, Mrs. W. B. Brown, and Mrs. E. J. Butler of Melvindale, Mich.

The Present Day Club met Tuesday evening at home of Mrs. Loren Elliott of Emmons avenue. Mrs. B. Carburg and Mrs. M. Parkyn presided over the meeting. The subject for discussion was "British Possessions in the Pacific Ocean."

Miss Bessie Baughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Vaughan of Detroit, will entertain the nine members of her bridge club at a party at her home this evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church met Wednesday at 2 o'clock at the church. Rev. S. Irvine Atchison, of the Southfield Presbyterian church, who was formerly a missionary in Egypt, at the guest speaker. A playlet called the "Wrong Baby" was presented, and a program of special music was given. Mrs. D. L. Tate of Westchester Way was in charge of the program.

The Ladies Society of the Embury M. E. church will hold its regular meeting and a white elephant party this afternoon at the church.

VELVET JACQUETTES WILL COVER SPRING FROCKS

Smart little velvet jacquettes, slightly puffed. The deep cap collar ties around the waist with a bow in the back. The dress is chartruese crepe. Turquoise blue velvet with three-quarter loose sleeves trimmed with beige smart ermine is pictured center. It is worn with a beige lace dress. Another smart black jacquette right, has loose sleeves trimmed with white fox. It is worn with a white crepe dress, and ties around the front in two ends and a knot. Model's bag is of white plush.

DO YOU PLAY BROADSIDE, BALLYHOO, or work Cross-word Puzzles?

If you do you can find all of the above here in our store, priced as follows: Broadside—50c Ballyhoo—$1.00 23rd Crossword Puzzle—$1.35

LA BELLE'S "Birmingham's Shop of Books and Gifts" 137 West Maple Avenue Telephone 1225

WANT ADS COST LITTLE AND GET QUICK RESULTS

"Your Toast Is Ready, Sir" and breakfast is a success when you serve delicious golden brown toast made from CHEESE BREAD. The best cheese that can be procured is grated, mixed in and then baked right in the loaf. No wonder it's so good! AT YOUR GROCER'S fresh from the ovens of the GAUSS BAKING CO. "Buy It... Try It... You'll Like It!"

It Makes Wonderful Golden Brown Toast. Image of a toaster and bread.