VILLAGERS and the VILLAGE

By THE WANDERER

FROM "AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF AN ATTITUDE"

By GEORGE JEAN NATHAN

"ONE OF the most beautiful of all things in the world is a beautiful lamp."

Nothing in the world, save it be music, can soothe and set adream the mood of mortal man. The past and all the present and some of the future are encompassed in its soft, persuasive glow. It is the symbol of love, of home, of wistful vagrant fancy of all the hopes and despair of one's life on earth. God made the sun, the moon and stars, but man, his child, out of necessity, made for himself the lamp light as a beacon and a haven for the innermost secrets of his heart of hearts."

Boated real live ducks, were arranged in a manner attempting to show what an industrious amateur gardener might do with his back yard. Although popular vote of visitors to the show gave the exhibit second place to the display of A. J. Stachelin of Detroit, nurserymen themselves who exhibited at the show put the Corryell garden at the top of the list.
