Columns of Long Ago

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Roads are improving.

Just to think! The boss snow storm of the year came on Saturday last, Mar. 25.

Two silk handkerchiefs were purloined from the cloaks of ladies at last night's Library Hall.

If that man with the "old vest" who found a muff some 40 rods from the State farm on the night of the 21st, will return the same to F. B. C., no questions will be asked.

J. K. Adams lost a valuable horse last week Friday and in dying remembrance a large Tennessee sheep, which John thought more than he did the horse.

The Republicans of Southfield have had their caucus and nominated William Eddy for supervisor.

CHEER UP! WE'RE ALMOST THERE!

THE OTHER CHAP SAYS SOMETHING

WE HOPE NOT

One of the daily newspapers the other day carried the picture of a very handsome young lady, a swimming champion.

To-night and to-morrow night you may go "Down by the Sea" at the Grand Hotel.

It is a very beautiful picture of a young woman, a swimming champion.

There are many things that I am so happy over; sky

Turned to amethyst, or wine Sweet and mellow; it is fine

If a pretty blonde I see I'll lift her eyes and smile at me

Say, a little check for this... Out depression? Hello, hello!

PEOPLE'S COLUMN

The Eccentric is pleased to receive communications for this column. All communications should be signed, but signatures will be published only if the contributor desires.

To the Editor: In your issue of Mar. 24 you published an article by the Rt. Rev. John F. Noll, which you have evidently copied verbatim, but your headline evidenced that you have jumped the text and lead the public to believe the Bishop approved of trial marriage.
