What's he doing it for?

What keeps him on his toes?

To be sure, we don't know what purposes are in the minds of all the men and women who come into our Savings Department every week.

But we do k ow that each one must have sor definite, clear-cut objective to account for this selfsacrifice, this persistence, this regularity.

In each case we feel sure that there is a strong eart' at work - out to win its heart's desire.

He Declined To Speak For Publication!

We can't blame Hector, for after THAT bump there's nothing he can think of HIT for publication! "Shucks!" mutters a chap with a sad look "until he's bussed his teeth trying to eat so-called bargain meat." That's why folks come to Stroup's for meats, because the assured goodness and cleanliness mean more in meat than almoss any other food product. And, of course, like everything also here, all means are priced to please you.
