Roll-Call To Help Indigent In County

Mrs. Harold H. Corson, chairman of the Red Cross Roll Call in Bloomfield Township, today called attention of residents of Birmingham and the Hills to the fact that Oakland County does not benefit from contributions to the Detroit Community Fund.

Some seem to feel that by contributing to the Community Fund they have also donated to the Red Cross, Mrs. Corson said. "As far as the National Red Cross and the Wayne County Chapter are concerned, they have, but the many in need in Oakland County do not of course receive aid from the Wayne County Chapter."

Mrs. Corson is directing the canvass for members of the Red Cross in Bloomfield Township, which began yesterday and will continue until after Thanksgiving Day.

During the past year, the Oakland County Chapter of the Red Cross has given assistance to the needy through the County Poor Commission to the amount of $135,122, according to C. B. Wilson, poor commissioner. Aid received included Mr. Wilson stated recently, 19,750 barrels of flour, representing a cost of $32,200; 3,000 five-pound packages of cracked wheat, valued at $150, and 134,000 yards of cotton to be made into garments by volunteer Red Cross workers.

"Future assistance in Oakland County from the Red Cross will be contributed from funds raised in the present Roll Call," Mrs. Corson pointed out.

From A WOMAN'S ANGLE

Somebody remarked that it seems to be the fashion among certain women to go to the home boys' meetings, which raises the question, "Why?"

Someone else pointed out that Andre Mauron, author of "Universe," calls attention to the fact that there is a very strong Americanism among the "home boys."

Mrs. E. E. Porter, too much busy with her own life, says she probably would not go to such a service. At any rate, M. Mauron appears to have changed quite a bit.

If the girls' idea of civility is that the average American business man will go to the Walter Raleigh when occasion demands, they're right in thinking civility is dead.

Men don't go to extremes to prove their general admiration for women nowadays. Each woman's gestures as sweeping bows, and kisses on a lady's small white hand, are the only things that the powdered wig can do.

All of which brings up the question, "What is the modern understanding of civility from the standpoint of the modern American woman?"

It is something far more important.

When the average young man of this age or any other goes about, he doesn't need any lessons in civility.

He seems to know how to put his best foot forward, and his civility is complete.

Parents To Blame For Racial Prejudices, P. T. A. Told

Parents are largely responsible for children's prejudices toward aliens, Mrs. E. D. Shain told members of the Parent-Teacher Association of Barnum School at a meeting at the school Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Shain addressed the Association on "Youth's Mind and World Politics."

"It is important that youth be trained into international-mindedness," Mrs. Shain declared. "Songs of peace and not of war, and songs of other countries taught in the school room would help instill the right attitude in the mind of youth."

A cash prize was awarded to Miss Lyla McCormick for the best collection of 25 pictures clipped from magazines to be attached to the life of pictures used in classwork at Barnum School.

The time of meeting was changed on suggestion of Mrs. George Gruenewald, chairman of the membership committee. In the future, the P. T. A. will meet for tea and a social hour from 3:30 to 4 P. M. The program will follow until 4:30, and the business meeting will be held from 4:30 to 5 P. M.

Those acting as hostesses at the meeting included Mrs. E. D. Sprague and Mrs. Earl Cuningham. Assisting at the tea table were Mrs. Frank Smith and Mrs. Sanford Allen.

Officers Named For New Catholic League

Organization plans of the Birmingham Unit, League of Catholic Women, were completed at a recent meeting here in the Community House. With Mrs. Walter Connelly of East Maple avenue as the president, appointed previously by Mrs. E. A. Skae of Bloomfield Hills, diocesan president, the new Unit completed its official slate.

Mrs. John E. Moore of Red Oaks, Bloomfield Hills, was named vice-president; Mrs. Charles J. O'Connor of Wilmington drive, secretary; and Mrs. Michael Collins of East Maple avenue, treasurer.

Mrs. Harold H. Corson of West Maple avenue was appointed chairman of the committee on welfare, and Mrs. Harry Mack of Puritan road was named chairman of the membership committee.

Members of the new Unit voted to provide baskets for needy families for Thanksgiving Day, as a preliminary step in welfare plans.

Managers To Learn Gas Survey Details

A committee of four managers of Southern Oakland County municipalities will confer here in Rapid today with G. J. Wagner, author of a recently completed report on gas rates being charged in this district by the Consumers Power Company.

The purpose of the conference, according to Village Manager James W. Parry, one of the members of the committee, will be to learn the details of the report preparatory to conferring with officials of the utility over the possibility of a reduction in the rate schedule.

Inasmuch as the survey set forth that there is no justification for demanding a reduction on the basis of the Consumers Power Company's earning capacity or the appraisal valuation of its properties, attempts will be made to arrive at an agreement on amicable terms, Mr. Parry said.

Other members of the committee include Managers Jay F. Gibbs of Ferndale, E. E. Shar of Royal Oak, and Ashton J. Berr of Pleasant Ridge. William H. Schmidt of Pontiac may also attend the Grand Rapids conference.
