The Penalty Of Leadership

The Penalty Of Leadership In every field of human endeavor, he that is first must projectually live in the white light of publicity. Whether the leadership be ested in a makeos in a construction of the construction and every field the leadership be ested in a makeos in a construction of the same. The reward is wide special encognition; the purashment, firstly dealed and detriction.

When a quarts work becomes a standard for the whole would it is also becomes a target for the sharts of the new law of the construction. When a quarts work becomes a standard for the whole would it is also becomes a target for the sharts of the environ fews. If his work is merely medicare, he will see according to the environment of the environ fews. If his work is merely medicare, he will see anything the environmental to the construction of the construct to deprecise and to destroy—one more the superiority of that which he strives to supmore the superiority of that which he strives to supplant.

There is nothing new in this. It is as old as the world and as old as the human passion—erry, fear, i greed, ambition, and the desire to surpass. And ki all avails nothing. If the leader truly leads, he remains —the leader. Master-poet, master-painter, masterworkman, each in his turn is assiled, and each holds his haurels forough the age.

That which is good or great makes itself known, no matter slow loud the clamor of denial. That which deserves to live—lives—(This text appeared as an

NOT SO MANY YEARS 400 most people in the United States were soaring aloft on the blowing breezes of an easy prosperity; today too many people have found unhappy "landings" from their aerial ride. What breezes will be blowing in nample year or two? Who can say? But the wise, profiting by the whimsiness of prosperity's breezes, will but they for new altitude records during the next "Fair weather."

DURING THE RECENT HEAT WAYE IN England, the renowned bank of England allowed all clerks not hav-ing contact with the public to remove their coats True to tradition, however, they all kept their shifts on.

EVERY YEAR THREE MILLIONS Of people are added to Russia's population. Figuring half of them as male, you obtain some idea of the world's growth in whiskers.
