The greatest inheritance any child may receive, I believe, is the companionship of an understanding parent.

FIFTY-FIFTH YEAR—NO. 29

THIS IS HERE TO GREET and HAT PERRY HEATH

While many of you who read this column were either at Olympia or at their own radio listening to the voice of President Hoover Saturday night, I saw with a group of friends in the Palmer House in Chicago, where a special radio broadcast was being made by the very representatives of the National Republican Campaign Committee...

Mr. Heath, a native of Grand Rapids, Michigan, is a prominent politician and business leader. He is the son of a prominent family and has received a liberal education at the University of Michigan...

His last appearance in this section was in the Presidential campaign of 1920, when he was elected to the office of Governor of Michigan. He has since held various offices and has been a member of the National Republican Campaign Committee...

Members of the committee on arrangements for the rally next week, who will also serve as a committee for the election of a delegate to the National Republican Campaign Committee...

Over here in Chicago there is an unique organization, called the "Lions Club," which is located at 43 North Clark street, on the second floor of an old building...
