daily except Sundays and holidays. It is also open on Wednesday before and after the service.

Prohibition after death was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday Oct. 23.

Among the Bible students, was this passage (Mark 16:9): "Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had been preaching."

Correlative passages, read from the Christian Science text, "The Resurrection and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Rev. Baker Eder, "The Resurrection and Health (p. 48): "The Master said plainly that his body was not raised after his resurrection, he proved to the physical senses that his body was not raised after his resurrection, he proved to the physical

PLAYERS REVIEW TO

APPEAR NEXT WEEK

Unfurnished mechanical complaints, many of them, are for The Eccentric to publish in this edition a review of the opening last Friday night of the 10th season of the Village

Players.

The review, which has been prepared specially and is individualistic style by one of the members of the Players, will appear in next week's Eccentric.

one, and Thomas seven. It was fairly evident, too, that about one of the seven Thomas supporters were not quite in earnest, and that they are in reality Hoover men.

Baldwin High School students and faculty members will be admitted free to the Cranbrook-Birmingham football game to be played Friday at the Cranbrook stadium upon presentation of complimentary tickets which may be obtained at the High School. Melvin C. Hays, principal, announced Tuesday, the concession is being made in return for the free admittance of Cranbrook students and masters to last year's contest played at Pieris Field.

"I'll tell you why I don't look as well-dressed as other husbands!"

"Don't blame me—blame these shirts you buy me. They don't fit too well in the beginning—and after a couple of launderings they'd hardly fit a midget. If you want me to look well-dressed, find me some shirts that really fit—and keep on fitting!"

You'll find those shirts, madam, right here—Arrow Shirts. They're Sanforized—Shrink—if one ever shrinks.
