Re-elect Your Senator

JAMES E. LAWSON

REPUBLICAN PRIMARY

MR. LAWSON is the Senator who was most instrumental in cutting the assessed valuation of Oakland County over $100,000,000. This is an immense saving for EVERY TAXPAYER.

Mr. Lawson, as he promised, obtained thousands of dollars for Covert Road taxation relief, which means another immense saving for EVERY TAXPAYER.

Every day of the year Mr. Lawson is looking after the direct relief for the homeowner and taxpayer.

Upwards of 10,000 taxpayers and homeowners signed Mr. Lawson's petitions for re-election for another term, realizing that Mr. Lawson is the man who will continue to get additional relief.

This advertisement paid for by taxpayers and homeowners who fully realize just how much Senator Lawson has done to relieve our tax burden and how what Mr. Lawson has done to make Oakland County a better place to live in.

strong arm of the law, therefore I require a man who is fearless and at the same time, conscientious to the full extent of performing the duties, showing no partiality. This political edition would not be complete unless we made special mention of Frank J. Greenan who is seeking nomination on the Republican ticket for Sheriff.

Mr. Greenan can handle this office in an efficient manner and will always be faithful to the interests of the people. The writer believes that Oakland County will never have a more efficient, conscientious and faithful man to seek this office. He knows Mr. Greenan and knows that if he is nominated and elected he will always keep in mind the needs of the people and serve them to the best of his ability. Actions speak louder than words and Mr. Greenan is asking for nomination on what he has done in the past and not upon flowery words for the occasion. He asks your support and will certainly appreciate what you certainly appreciate what you do for him and the good word you may speak in his behalf.

80th Birthday

A buffet supper of charming appointments was given by Miss Mabel and Louise Toomey at their home on Harmon Avenue Sunday evening to mark the eightieth anniversary of their mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes Toomey.

The guests, who numbered 18, were with two exceptions members and connections of the Holmes family. Mrs. Toomey is the only living member of the original pioneer family, prominent in the early history of Washtenaw County. Five years ago, Mrs. Toomey and her daughters came to Birmingham to make their home.

Telegram of congratulation recently received by Mrs. Toomey from Senator Royal S. Copeland of Suffren, N. Y., a nephew and son-in-law of her late husband, Dexter, Mich., who married Mrs. Toomey's eldest sister, Frances, deceased.

Senator Copeland expressed regret at being unable to attend his aunt's birthday celebration due to the fact that he is 94 years old, was indisposed and unable to make the trip.

Among those who attended were Helen Holman, Charles, Mich., with his twin sons, Howard and Dudley, incidentally, the fund manager for the bearing the name of "Holmes"; Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Wurster, Miss Nairabel Wood and Miss Nina Crowell, all of Chelsea.

Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin of Detroit and Miss Gertrude Fletcher of Birmingham. The two guests in addition to Mrs. Toomey were Mrs. Nancy B. Thomas of Birmingham and Miss Georgia Tilden of Detroit.

Mrs. Toomey, whose health has not been of the best recently, still enjoys reading, which always has been one of her chief interests.

Announcement—See Mrs. High S. Wellman of East Washtenaw as chairman of the annual book sale of the American Association of University Women, to be held in October, at the Birmingham Y. W. C. A.

The sale this year will be for the benefit of the national scholarship fund and international fund maintained by the Association.

The books sold are donated by the purchase and collected by members of the local branch. Plans are under way for this year's sale, Mrs. Wellman announced.

Miss Olive Wilson, en route here from Los Angeles, California, following a European visit, will be the guest for the weekend of Mrs. and Mrs. Angus D. McLaughlin of Winton drive, Waukegan, Ill.

Miss Wilson was the guest of Mrs. McLaughlin's sister, Mrs. Charles Bruggeman.

apology for stating that the budget could not be reduced to $25,000 this year by comparison with almost $50,000 last year? Mr. Staudy said: "With the elimination of this $10,000 item and other economies that the township board has made I believe they will do even better than that."

The Birmingham Village Commission probably has taken the best attitude in this matter in assuming that the community may not save any money by the change under present conditions, but that the change is worth making for the other benefits. Mr. Staudy finished: "Whenever this question comes up in any community there are always arguments on both sides. Several years ago it was pointed out in Birmingham that it was much more elite to be a village than the bogey of having increased school taxes was brought up; then the possibility of having to pay for the Woodward village watershed, now the poor relief.

"Next year if the poor relief problem subsided, there would be another reason for not making the change, and five years from now still more elite to be a village community. But the fact remains that, under any circumstances, the village-township plan is wasteful and fundamentally wrong; and the only way Birmingham or any other Michigan village can correct the trouble is by voting to become a city."

WHY Should Married Men Be Discriminated Against in THE REGISTER OF DEEDS OFFICE?

Taxpayers' money should be used to give as many married men employment as possible, yet during the last eight years not one of the eight employees in this department has been a married man. Husbands with families to support make good workers and should not be discriminated against. Harry E. Curtis, Republican candidate for this office, if elected, will give competent married men an opportunity to earn a living in this department.

Tapers and Palms Adorn Church Altar When Birmingham Girl Becomes Bride

One of Birmingham's loveliest wedding ceremonies, and one which attracted wide social attention, was solemnized in quiet St. James Episcopal Church Sunday afternoon, when Miss Jane Wall, daughter of Mr. William Garfield Wall of Fernside avenue, and Dr. Loren Clarke Sheffield of Pontiac, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Sheffield of Edenville, Ill., spoke their marriage vows.

Rev. Warner L. Forsyth, pastor, read the nuptial service and the altar, flanked with palms and blue and white candles, and lighted by cathedral tapers in tall chandeliers.

The bride, who entered on the arm of L. N. Pyle, was most attractive in a Lavinia model of soft pink crepe, beamingly fastened with high neckline, tight bodice, and full skirt reaching the floor. A graceful cape falling to the waistline, and edged with wide bands of ostrich, and matching hat of crepe with small black and white tulle, and a long and faceted crown, completed the bridal ensemble. She carried a bouquet of forget-me-nots, valley lilies and white ranunculus tied with shell pink satin ribbon.

Mrs. Edward W. Hiett, as matron of honor, wore a Lucile model of blue marquisette and lace, made with tight bodice, long neckline, draped sleeves and long straight skirt. Her hat was of matching material, with a wide brim and a pink rose bud, tied with blue tulle.

A lovely gown of stenciled net over blue taffeta, also a Lucile model, was worn by Miss Mary Pyle, maid of honor, who carried a similar bouquet, and whose hat was also of pale blue crepe.

Mrs. Wall, mother of the bride, was dressed in green ambroid crepe with a matching crepe hat. She wore a shoulder bouquet of orange and white flowers.

Edward W. Hiett assisted Dr. Sheffield as best man, and the ushers included L. M. Baker, Reginald W. Ross, F. J. Wurster, and Laurence C. Minor.

Garden flowers of many colors brightened the rooms of the Community House where the bridal party received following the ceremony. On the bride's table, spread with an Italian lace cloth, were the lilies cake, surrounded by ivory candles in silver candlesticks, and bowls of pink roses and blue hydrangeas.

For her traveling costume, Mrs. Sheffield chose a tan crepe ensemble with a brocade embroidered jacket, small brown felt hat and brown accessories.

Dr. and Mrs. Sheffield left for an almost trip to Presque Isle Lodge, near Alpena. They will be at home at the home of Mrs. J. H. Houghton, 113 at 89 Mack street, Pontiac.

Members of the board of directors of the Thursday Musical will meet for tea and to outline plans for the year, today, at the home of the president, Miss Dorchester York of Yorkplace, Stannock road.

Division No. 2 of the Women's Union of the Presbyterian Church, led by Mrs. E. L. Beers, will meet Wednesday, Sept. 7, for luncheon and sewing at the home of Mrs. W. H. Houghton of Norwich road, Pleasant Ridge.

Mrs. Robert Barlow of New York City, with her son, John, arrived Wednesday to be the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bernard L. Snyder of Madison avenue. Mr. Henry Manley of Greenwood avenue will be hostess at a bridge luncheon today in honor of Mrs. Barlow and her hostess. The guests will include Mrs. Arthur Plant, Mrs. H. W. Guest, and from Royal Oak, Mrs. Jules Bean, Mrs. Russell Grove and Mrs. Harold Stephens.

FROM THE far flung reaches of the world we have just received many gifts, chosen because they are both rare, and beautiful!

From the archways which line the narrow, winding streets of the Orient have come beautiful COPPERS.

Likewise POTTERY, unusual and in beautiful shape and color, has come from those secluded spots seldom reached by tourists. Come see them, and other new arrivals from the old world.

And pardon us, please, for mentioning this again, but there is one book that we believe to be the outstanding novel of the last two or three years. It is "THE FOUNTAIN," by CHARLES MORGAN. So certain as we that you will like it that we offer to exchange it for any book of equal price, if you can say that you did not thoroughly enjoy reading it.
