

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AND THE HILLS

By MARJORIE ELAINE PORTER

Hospital Auxiliary Names Hills' Matron Head

Mrs. Joseph A. Braun of Bloomfield Hills was elected president of the Auxiliary of St. Joseph's Hospital at a meeting held in the hospital Monday afternoon. Mrs. Braun succeeds Mrs. Henry F. Gauthier, who presided for three years and will remain on the honorary board at this meeting.

Other newly elected officers are Mrs. C. H. Blomberg, first vice-president; Mrs. D. R. Wilson, second vice-president; Dr. M. William H. Tuck, third vice-president; Mr. Harry J. Fitzgerald, fourth vice-president; Mrs. Herbert N. Watson, recording secretary; Mrs. Peter L. Woodward, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William A. Kennedy, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Walter Scott Saunders is the treasurer; Mrs. Gertrude S. Thompson, auditor; Mrs. Walter Y. Stanley is chairman of publicity and Mrs. William B. Cashman is public relations.

There were last night a membership drive to be conducted in Birmingham and Pontiac under the chairmanship of Mrs. E. N. Thielke. Weekly meetings will be held at the hospital at 11:30 A.M. to see if indigent patients.

Mrs. Kenzie G. Smith will open her home at Bryn Mawr for a garage and bring in the benefit of the hospital Sept. 22.

Mrs. Gray

The reception dinner for members will be held at the home of Mrs. H. H. Hollinger of Suffield road Saturday afternoon, marked the opening of the season for the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women. Mrs. Charles E. Dye of Bryn Mawr road was chairman of hostess.

Hills Girl To Wed At Out-Door Ceremony

Among the early autumn weddings in the Hills will be that of Miss Jane Page, daughter of Louis and Mary Jean F. Page, of Long Pine road and Winlaw, and Pierre G. Fugier, son of Mr. and Edmund DeLoes of Gross Pointe, with grounds of the church of St. Hugo's of the Hills on Ondine road.

The ceremony will be performed at 3:30 P.M. by the Rev. William W. Ryan pastor in the church of the immediate family.

Miss Page will be attended by Miss Ellen Lee of Philadelphia, maid of honor. Frederick W. Fugier will assist his brother as best man. An informal reception by the parents of the bride's parents will follow the ceremony.

Miss Rhoda Newberry entertained in honor of the couple with a dinner at her home, Lake Terrace, in Green Pointe Tuesday evening. The bridegroom's parents will host at a dinner for the wedding party at his Grosse Pointe home Wednesday evening.

Guests, assisted by Mrs. F. H. McKinney, Mrs. William E. Hinckley, Mrs. E. E. Keller, and Mrs. Craig H. Richey.

Mrs. William E. Essery, vice-president, represented Mrs. McKinney at the ceremony, which continued in effect as present this year, but who left recently for a European trip. Mrs. Gray is expected to return in October.

Other officers for the season, beginning are Mrs. Charles Lewis, treasurer, recording secretary; Mrs. R. L. Beers, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles E. Dye, chairman of the library; with Mrs. R. B. Griggs and Mrs. Melvin C. Hart, directors at-large.

Mrs. Essery will head the committee on membership again this year. Mrs. Charles Lewis has been named new chairman of the programs committee, and other new members include Mrs. Robert J. Moffatt, who will lead the committee on college information; Dr. Donald C. Johnson, chairman of the social committee; and Mrs. William C. Atte, who will direct publicity.

ABOUT TOWN

with the AD REPORTER

Several of the smart younger set are trying to decide this fall where to go to school. Hobart made its famous Wellaston, 385 E. Main. And are they clever! Just call 2136.

More about the school set—Mabelle Beauty Shop, 227 N. Woodward, offers school girls a charming Crocodile permanent for $1.50. Next week.

Phone number? It's 9063. Miss Marcia Kent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Kent, of Pilgrim road, left Wednesday at last week for Chatham, Ont., where she will be a student in the Ursuline Academy.

Certainly, you want your cutie to look good during the season. Just take it to Matthews Tailor Shop, 244 E. Maple, to be remodeled and repaired. Call 9011.

Oh! Oh! Don't miss this! A special on cracked wheat bread at Keaston's Bakery, 326 E. Maple, is $1.50. It's So Good—on Tuesday and Thursday. Phone number is 699.

A piano will not be taught is the school this year, to continue your children's musical education, let them take privately from Helen Wagner, Mrs. 536 Park street. You may reach her at 2147.

The delights of an all-in-one foundation garment are many, especially when Mrs. Mrs. Scherf shows for her "Call Royal Oak" 1938 for a free analysis of your figure.

Getting remodeling requires the skill of an experienced hand! Zella E. Lang, with the D. J. Healy Shop 1 1/2 years, will please you most. Another is Mrs. Nichols, and Little, entered by W. Chamberlain, second and third respectively.

Another thrill was furnished spectators in the steeplechase for qualified hunters, with a close race between Red Fox III, entered by Walker Farms, and Shaggy Jr., entered by Mrs. Mrs. Nichols, in latter winning. Third in this race was Castle Wood owned by Mrs. Durey Nott.

In the race for horses owned and raced by farmers, the latter entry, Cricket, as the victor, getting well out in front from the start, and holding on to the lead through the finish.

A fall streak of luck would open the final race with two options.

In the first of these, Mrs. DuCharme's scratch stretcher, out ahead of the pack, won the Sprint, which came in second, and Sandy O'Malley, third, to give the Metamora Hunt three.
