

SCREEN, STAGE AND STUDIO..

By AUDE ENCE

Studio scribbles have been warned by execs to write like gents and not certain choices on adherence to English. No more words like "Hot Mama," "lousey," "secretive," "junk," "nuts" or "stroller" will be allowed in film dialog.

List of words in thumbs-down collection have been issued by Paramount and those include, as well as profanity and slang, no names and short cracks about time-honored institutions.

Any reference to a "Wop," a "kiss," a "Habe or a "Fiance" came taboo list, as do phrases as "on the make," "in your hat," "I know what you can do," "See you in church" or "Dead as a church picnic" are also on the list. Institutions to be excluded from all such references include Boy Scouts, Purty League, Red Cross, Army of Navy, W. C. T. U., Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A.

Small arrangements between radio and football execs result in announcement that Associated Company will use NBC and Don CBS to broadcast all football games. Broadcasts of 60 games will be made over CBS and over NBC.

Rate styles in dogs are barred from streets of "Rome" in screen of Cecil B. DeMille's "The Sign of the Cross." Most modern dogs were unknown in time of the film. Roman dog breeds are said to be scarce, with only six of breed in U. S. One dog found in Hollywood and others brought from Baltimore. Dog is said to remain unknown.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

"I WONDER WHY I WASN'T INVITED?"

Youthful, attractive, possessing a charming, vivacious personality... yet Polly seldom is invited on those impromptu, "spur of the moment" parties. For Polly has no telephone at home, and most parties nowadays are arranged the easiest, quickest way... by telephone!

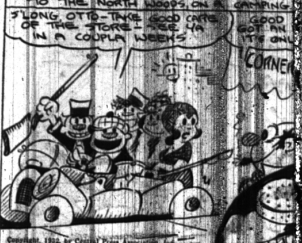

The social advantages, the PROTECTION afforded in emergencies, and the money time-and-stopping ways in which the telephone serves daily, combine to make telephone service invaluable to all the family.

Few things offer so much usefulness and PROTECTION at such little cost as the telephone.
