same thought has often occurred to us, too. With such a wealth of historic background, why does not some state agency (already in existence, and not to be created) later a movement to interest every community of marking its landmarks and historic points of interent. As one suggestion, why should not, able Grover Dilman's highway department place suitable signs on timal hier roads, each sing with its down local inscription touching the subject of interest? Tourists would be attracted by them, and even netice Michiganders ought to obtain renewed enthuliasm and interest in their own richly endowed commonwealth.

lova Jamudas, unable to raise food for sale at a decent profit, have started to raise the prices of their products by refusing to unload shem in large cities. If they are able to keep at it long enough, they will be in a measure successful. Other peoples in other eras have tried the same methods, but human nature doesn't clumge over-night—and even lowa farmers cannot gest to coperative marketing upon a manipulated economic world.

DR. E. A. CHRISTIAN, for half a century associated with the Portiae State Hospital, recently was honored at a dinner endered him. For 77 years he has absorbed the offerings of this planet earth, and has deported himself in a manner that proves he was rightly surnamed. Congratulations, Sir, and many more years to your spair.

"CONFUSION REIGNS at polls" was one thing recently and said about the special election held in Detroit. To which, we would only ask: when was any election and held when confusion did not reign?"

Wiseacres sizing up the next Congress, believe that, is it will be us the hands of the Democratic party. Well, the say long as she Chief Jackass remains in New York was take, we won't get too worried.
