

CLUB AND SOCIETY

Benefit Proceeds To Aid Worthy Students

More than 100 guests attended the bridge tea at the Community Center Tuesday afternoon and evening held under the auspices of the Birmingham Student Union. The benefit was given for the purpose of raising funds to assist four students who recently requested for loans to continue their education.

All This Month This Coupon $5 Good For On Any Refrigerator Electrolic Oil Burner Right-Way Oil Burner Kelvinator Sales Corp. Harry Bissett, Mgr. W. Maple Phone 1271

September Days Mark Departure Of School Set As Alma Mater Calls

As the month of September speeds along, each day brings new departures among the youngsters setting away to school and college in various parts of the country. Large groups of upperclassmen will leave this week-end to report at the University of Michigan.

Miss Barbara Stecker will transfer from Sullias College to Mt. Holyoke, this year, and other girls from the Hills and Birmingham planning to attend eastern schools include the Misses Janet Bragaw and Mary Elizabeth Olson, who will attend Wellesley College; Betty Kroun, who will attend Wilson College; Mary Louise, who will return to Smith and Virginia

Women's Groups Join Simplicity Is Charm Of Nuptial Service

The wedding ceremony of the simplicity was solemnized in the rectory of St. Regis's at Hill Church Saturday at 3 o'clock when Miss Janet Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Page of Lone Pine road and William C. became the bride of Edward Delbos and Mr. Delbos of Gosport.

Assisting on the committee are Misses Elizabeth and Griswold Will Smith, Jr., of Cleveland; Dr. and Mrs. Woodford Willard, Miss Janet Wood, Mrs. and Mrs. J. K. King, and Mrs. W. J. Clotier, all of Philadelphia.

Hills Girl To Wed In Detroit On Saturday

Social interest in the Hills this week centers upon the nuptial affair being celebrated on Saturday of Miss Suzanne Louise House, daughter of George W. House, 1100 1/2th street, and Harrison Suckness Phelps, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Harrison Phelps of Gosport.

Miss Latta W. Porter of Baldwin avenue entertained 40 guests at a luncheon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward M. Tyler, former of New York, but who with Mr. Tyler will reside in the Manor Apartments on Southfield road after Oct. 1. These pouring in for the occasion include: Christopher Brien, Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond, and Mrs. Gerald J. McMechan, assisting also were the Misses Betty Utter, and Doris Cox. Orchid flowers and tapers were used in decorating the charmingly appointed tea table.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Osborne of Pierpont entertained a group of friends at an outdoor supper party Friday evening, including Mr. C. Brown C. Bingham, Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Huffman, Miss Dorothea York and H. Kenneth Bingham.

Miss Louise Minting of Townsend street left Monday for New York City to enter the Nurses Training School of St. John's Hospital at Long Island City.

The closing dinner dance of the season will be held at the Lake Country Club Saturday evening.

Mrs. H. M. Adelman of Beverly Hills was hostess of two important social affairs during the past part of the week. On Wednesday she entertained a small group at luncheon and bridge, and Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Adelman were hosts at dinner and bridge for a group of friends.

Mrs. Malcolm G. Ewer of Maywood drive has returned from a tour of 10 days with her son, Malcolm G. Ewer, at Pleasant College Institute, Mt. Pleasant, N. C. Cadet Ewer was chosen commandant of cadets with the rank of senior captain by the Cadet Corps of the school. This is the highest honor bestowed by the institution.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sabom of Mohagan avenue had as their dinner guests Thursday evening, Dr. R. J. Allen and Lord Clainfield of Lancaster, Eng. Dr. Allen and Lord Clainfield have been touring Canada, and while there spent some time at the Toronto Exhibition. Lord Clainfield is planning a general tour of this country.

William Sabom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sabom of Mohagan avenue, left Wednesday for Ann Arbor where he will resume his studies as a junior.

Mrs. Newton F. Hadley of Arlington drive was hostess at an informal bridge luncheon Tuesday in honor of her sister Mrs. Adelaide Coke of Columbus, O., her guest for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. John Camp of Greenwood avenue and their son, Ben, are spending two weeks vacation in northern Michigan.

The Mabel Guess Musicals Studio

935 Southfield Road - Birmingham 1904 Crafts Guild - Detroit - 111 E. Kirby - TR. 29155 Piano - Classes in Dipping - Theory Special Technique in developing and appreciation for the child mind.

MABEL GUESS, Mus. Soc., has studied with the late Paul Goldmark of New York City, the late Oscar Denton of New York City, Jan Chappuis of Chicago, and with Benjamin Nitzberg of Detroit. Continuing Enrollment

TOMORROW and SATURDAY - SEPTEMBER 23 and 24

DOLLAR DAYS At LABELLES

Again - "TALK-OF-TOWN" STATIONERY Beautiful stationery shades. 200 single sheets, 90 envelopes, with your name printed on both. Only ONE DOLLAR.

Pewter Cocktail Shakers $1.00 Sugar, Creamer and Tray $1.00 Tidbit Tray of Two Tiers $1.00

And Many Other Specials - Including 8-inch Lamp Shades BARGAIN TABLES OF BOOKS AND GIFTS. La Belle's "Birmingham's Shop of Books and Gifts" 137 West Maple

Mrs. Thomas Luscombe of Madison Avenue, her daughter, Mrs. Charles Platt of Rogers City, Mich., and the latter's daughter Nancy Lane, arrived home Sunday, Sept. 18. Mrs. Luscombe has spent several weeks at her daughter's home in Rogers City. Mrs. Platt is here to attend the wedding also.

7 SPECIALS for DOLLAR DAYS You May Order By Number

- No. 1 1 lb. Linden Butter 1 dz. Selected Eggs 2 lbs. Pure Leaf Lard 2 lbs. Pure Pork Sausage Meat
No. 2 4 lb. Jar Preserves 1 qt. Peanut Butter 1 qt. Mixed Pickles 1 can Teenie Weenie Sardines
No. 3 1 box Cake Flour 1 box Oat Meal 1 lb. Can Cocoa 1 lb. Can Tea - Green or Black
No. 4 1 lb. Honey Brand Bacon - Sliced 1 lb. Store Cheese 1 lb. Fresh Ground Hamburger 1 lb. Bologna 1 lb. Linden Butter
No. 5 5 lbs. Soap Chips 10 bars P. & C. or Flake White Soap 4 bars Oliv-ilo Soap 2 bars Life Buoy Soap 2 bars Lux Toilet Soap
No. 6 1 gal. PURE MAPLE SYRUP
No. 7 5 lbs. Fresh Dressed BROILERS
Extra Special - Fresh Dressed Fish Friday and Saturday

Local Distributors For Monarch Food Products OLSEN'S MARKET PHONE 648 "A Market Devoted to the Community It Serves"

W. S. Woodward at Maple - Phone 2133