SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AND THE HILLS

By MARJORIE ELAINE PORTER

Leaders Are Chosen By Needlework Guild

Mrs. Carleton C. Patterson of Woodland avenue was elected president of the Birmingham branch of the Needlework Guild, which held its annual meeting at the Community House Friday.

Mrs. Alfred J. LaBelle was elected first vice-president, with Mrs. E. Hallett as second; Mrs. Harry Allen, third; Mrs. Harry Mack, fourth; Mrs. W. S. Gilbreath, Jr., secretary, and Mrs. L. E. Colgrove, treasurer.

In preparation for the in-gathering of garments, which will take place here Nov. 1 and 2, 43 directors were appointed for Birmingham. Each director will enroll 10 garment members, each of whom will be asked to contribute two new garments, and one paying member.

After the garments have been collected, they will be on exhibition at the Community House Nov. 1, following which they will be distributed among needy families through the welfare department of the House.

The Birmingham branch of the guild was organized June 8, when Mrs. Truman H. Newberry of Grosse Pointe, and a vice-president of the national guild, spoke here on the aims of the organization.

Mrs. Thomas To Head Librarians At Annual Meet

When the Michigan Library Association convenes at Traverse City Oct. 6, 7 and 8, Mrs. Nancy B. Thomas, librarian of Baldwin Public Library, will preside as head of the association.

Taking part in the convention program will be Mrs. C. Kenneth Bell of Greenwood avenue, formerly a manuscript reader for an eastern publishing company, who will speak on "The Making of Best Sellers."

Other features of the convention will include talks by librarians from smaller communities by Prof. Margaret Mann from the University of Michigan, Prof. Elva L. Bascom of the Carnegie Library School in Pittsburgh, Miss Harriet Long of the Library School of Western Reserve University in Cleveland, and by Miss Mary E. Hazeltine, director of the Library School at the University of Wisconsin.

Michigan authors, including Harold Titus of Traverse City, will also be speakers, and at the closing program Professors Thomas Reed of the University of Michigan, and Louis Waldo of Michigan State College will address the librarians.

Birmingham League of Women Voters To Sponsor Citizenship School Here

As part of its educational program to enable women to cast more intelligent votes through a knowledge and understanding of governmental affairs, the Birmingham League of Women Voters is planning a Citizenship School to be held under its auspices at the Community House, Monday, Oct. 3.

The school is one of a series of educational community projects planned by the League, a comparatively recent organization in Birmingham, under the leadership of Mrs. Frank W. Harvey, the first president.

The morning session of the school, open to all women interested in the subjects under discussion, will begin at 11 A. M. with an explanation on the practical mechanics of voting.

This will be followed by examination and discussion of candidates' ballots collected, prior to the recent primary, by the Oakland County Council of Women for the enlightenment of voters, and later put on the election basis.

Other officers include Mrs. Angus D. McLean, first vice-president; Mrs. Dorothy Rose Revett, second vice-president; Mrs. George S. Wiley, secretary; and Mrs. Katherine C. Williams, treasurer. Committee chairmen recently appointed by the League are: Mrs. Bryant for efficiency of government; Mrs. Edward S. Rawles, for child welfare; Mrs. Fred D. Farnsworth, for elections; Mrs. Gordon Saunders, committee on living costs; Mrs. Harry L. Winston, committee on legislation; Mrs. Paul L. Penfield, committee on women in industry.

Mrs. C. Howard Donnelly, committee on the legislature; Mrs. Charles Shain, committee on international relations; Mrs. co-operation to prevent war; Mrs. L. M. Morgan, on publications, and Mrs. Beeman, chairman of the social committee.

Mrs. Hawley

Early Fall Wedding Was Pretty Event Of Saturday

Another Birmingham bride to choose an autumnal day for her wedding was Miss Charlotte Horen, daughter of Henry Horen of Toledo, Ohio, who married Mr. Thomas L. Luscombe, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Luscombe of West Maple avenue, yas an event at Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The marriage service was read by the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, at Shadowlawn on Brookside drive, in the presence of members of the family and a few close friends.

Miss Horen, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a picture gown of DuBarrie pink chiffon, fashioned on long lines, and trimmed with rust colored chiffon velvet. A hat in a matching shade of tweed, and an arm bouquet of Johanna Hill roses, completed her costume.

Mrs. John Otten of Ann Arbor, who attended Miss Horen as matron of honor, wore a gown of King blue chiffon velvet with hat in a matching shade, and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

An informal reception, also at Shadowlawn, followed the ceremony, after which the bridal couple departed on a wedding journey. For her going-away costume, Mrs. Luscombe wore a mustard shade ensemble, with a lapin scarf, a close fitting hat of brown felt and brown accessories.

On their return, they will reside at 400 West Maple avenue.

Bridge To Benefit Symphony Festival

Mrs. Fred S. Cole of Suffield road is general chairman for Birmingham of the bridge to be given at the Birmingham Golf Club Friday at 2 P. M. by the women's committee of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, assisted by the symphony committee of the Thursday Musicale.

The object of the affair is to aid in the staging of the current first Symphony Festival for Detroit and the Metropolitan Area.

The grand prize will be, according to Mrs. Cole, a season ticket to the Detroit Symphony Orchestra concerts at Orchestra Hall, and at such table, prizes of coupons to be exchanged for concert tickets will be awarded to the winners.

Among those who have reserved tables thus far are Mrs. F. H. Mellinger, Mrs. J. F. Horton, Mrs. John McGilvray, Mrs. James Lea Oliver, Mrs. C. H. Sherk, Mrs. L. H. Thomas, Mrs. L. G. Welch, Mrs. Karel M. Rickerson, Mrs. Donald T. Stanton, Mrs. Norman Lyle, Mrs. William Lloyd Kemp, and Mrs. Anita Stecker.

The Symphony Festival offers a week of concerts, free to the public, given by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra through the support and co-operation of leading organizations.

The symphony committee for the Birmingham Thursday Musicale is composed of Miss Dorothea York, president, as chairman; Mrs. Stanton, as general chairman of tickets, Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner as chairman of renewals and Mrs. Stecker as chairman of the exchange-coupons.

The Sans Souci Bridge Club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Winifred Burkman of Bates street, for tea. The members will make their plans at that time for the coming year.

The members of the Maple Bridge Club having the lowest bridge scores for the past year will entertain Friday, Sept. 30, at a bridge luncheon at Dearborn Inn, in honor of the members holding the highest scores. Mrs. T. E. Smith, Mrs. S. O. Wylie Bell, Mrs. Fred Crawford, and Mrs. William McKinney will be the hostesses to Mrs. Tunis Minor, Mrs. Seymour D. Adams, Mrs. Oscar Sahom, and Mrs. Guy Jensen.

Mrs. G. A. Ziegler of Madison avenue entertained the Junior Girls Group of the World Service Club, Monday night, Sept. 26. The 19 girls present elected as officers for the coming year: Mary Jane McClintock, president; Jean Moss, vice-president; Patricia Allen, recording secretary; Marjorie Tate, program chairman; Betty Carnahan, corresponding secretary; Lillian Masters, treasurer; Mildred White, membership secretary; Margaret Lynd, supplies secretary, and Helen Armstrong, secretary of spiritual life.

Mrs. R. J. Taylor of Southfield avenue entertained Wednesday at bridge luncheon, honoring Mrs. Charles Platz of Rogers City, formerly Miss Elizabeth Lanscombe. The guests included Mrs. George Daniels and her daughter, Jean, Mrs. Thomas Luscombe, Miss Virginia Taylor, and Miss Dorothy Pote of Pleasant Ridge.

Mrs. George Daniels and Mrs. W. Mix will be joint hostesses Friday at a bridge tea to be held at the home of Mrs. Daniels on Lincoln avenue, in honor of Mrs. Charles Platz of Rogers City. The guests will be Mrs. Della Waterbury, Mrs. Thomas Luscombe, Mrs. Harriett Siggers, Mrs. Winifred Burkman, Mrs. Clarence Hemstreet, Mrs. Fred Weller, Mrs. R. J. Taylor, Mrs. W. B. Brown, Miss Virginia Taylor and Miss Jean Daniels.

The Berean Class of the Baptist Church will entertain at a pot-luck supper at the church this evening, in honor of their husbands.

Marriage Of May 15 Is Announced By Bride's Parents

As a surprise to friends of the couple comes the announcement by Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lowman of Ferndale avenue of the marriage of their daughter, Lucille, to Gordon F. Chamberlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Chamberlin of Metamora, Mich.

The ceremony took place in Bowling Green, O., on May 15 last, in the parsonage of the Rev. H. J. Hallberg, who performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlin will be at home to their friends at the Alden Park Manor in Royal Oak, after Oct. 1.

Prior to her departure for Seton Hills College in Greensburg, Pa., Sunday, Miss Virginia Moore of Red Oaks was the honor guest at a dinner party given by Miss Jean Tremblay of Pennington drive, Detroit, at her home Thursday evening of last week, for members of the Nu Beta Nu Sorority. The sorority colors of blue and white were carried out in the table decorations of blue and white flowers and tapers. Covers were laid for 11 guests.

Mrs. William E. McCallum of East Maple avenue, with Miss Josephine Scherver of New York City, Miss Elizabeth Alling of Cincinnati, and Miss Sara Kerr of Detroit, met for luncheon at the Dearborn Inn Friday to discuss plans for the national convention of the American Association of Visiting Teachers to be held in Detroit in June. Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. McCallum will have as their dinner guests Miss Sue Stiffler and Miss Margaret Shreffler of Detroit, to discuss with Mrs. McCallum plans for the Girl Reserve Club here. Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. McCallum entertained at dinner at the Pine Lake Country Club, Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Wise and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Allman.

Mrs. W. G. Lewellen of Pilgrim road had as her luncheon guests, following a morning game of badminton, Tuesday, Mrs. William E. Heller, Mrs. R. K. White and Mrs. S. A. Stolberg.

Local Woman On State Committee

Mrs. William E. McCallum of East Maple avenue has been appointed chairman of the committee on work for the Birmingham branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association, which will be represented by the State Extension Committee.

With the 39 pupils of the school and 10 small friends as guests, Joan Donnelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Donnelly of Randall court, celebrated her fifth birthday Friday at the Evelyn H. Woodruff School on Greenwood avenue, which she attends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mahaney of Interlaken Drive, Pine Lake, will be hosts Friday evening at a buffet supper at their home, preceding bridge at the Woodfield Manor Country Club, open to the public. Tea and table prizes will be awarded and refreshments served.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Clark of Oak street attended the wedding of their neice, Miss Ruth Bell, in East Lansing, to Charles Bassett, in the chapel of the Congregational Church, Saturday.

A chicken supper will be served this evening at the Embury M. E. Church, under the auspices of the Ladies' Society of the Church. William Lyon will play violin selections and the Misses Naomi Schwalm and Jane Snyder, radio entertainers, will also play. The affair is open to the public.

Miss Ethel Hubert of Pattengill road spent last week-end as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Tibbles of Cass Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Smith have spent the past few months at their summer home on Pine Lake, returned this week to their new home on Maxman drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Waters of Richmond avenue returned Friday from an extensive trip through the St. Lawrence River district in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hyde and Miss Marjorie Hyde of Baton Rouge, La., en route from through the East, stopped in Birmingham last Tuesday to spend a day as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Adams of Adams road.

CARILLON RECITAL

Christ Church Cranbrook

Sunday, Oct. 2 at 3:30 P. M.

William Hall Miner, Bellmaster.

Choral, Du Lessens

Air de Jessi Christ Bach

Andante Gluck

Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin Wagner

All Hail the Power of Jesus Name Holden

Abide with Me Monk

Just as I am without One Vadbury

Plea Bennard

The Old Rugged Cross

Cranbrook School Hymn

Organ Recital

4 to 6 P. M.

Rex Glorioso Day

Adoration Krowski

Menuet Jewell

Festal March Calkin

ABOUT TOWN with the AD REPORTER

To make Sunday breakfast a treat, get a butter ring or cinnamon coffee cake at Kersten's Bakery, 326 E. Maple Saturday, when they have them as "specials". Phone number is 690.

Will the first snow fall find your precious children without snow suits? Not if you call Mrs. Ruth Saunders, 326, to come and fit them with Kladeezes. So cozy and economical!

Smart lines mean a clever fit—such as Zella B. Lang, with the D. J. Healy Shop 12 years, will give to your coats and frocks, for appointment, call her at 2311.

Couldn't pass Hicks Hat Shop, 135 E. Maple, this A. M.—Window full of adorable styles in rum brown, burgundy, black, and green —New—Different. Had to go in!

"Curly locks, curly locks, wilt thou be mine?"—but no one writes rhymes about straight locks. Better get a permanent at Maybelle's, 237 N. Woodward, (9063) for $4 Complete.

You never know when you drop in to see Jeanne Wellaston, 385 E. Maple, what she'll be making—evening gowns, street clothes, slip covers or things for children. Just Call 2196.

A Spencer Foundation Garment will wear longer than any other, and will keep its lovely lines as long as it lasts! Call Royal Oak 4888 for a free analysis of your figure.

You can't afford to let your fur coat become shabby! Take it to Mathews Tailor Shop, 244 E. Maple, for cleaning and remodeling. Phone number is 9031.

Even tiny tots learn to use their toes! Yvonne Gay is specializing in juniors from 4 to 10 years, in her dancing studio at the Community House Saturday morning. Just call 1458.

Mrs. Leslie G. Lamborn, 144 N. Worth street, will open her Birmingham studio Oct. 1, for two half rays each week, to accommodate her pupils here. Her phone number is 430.

Have you heard about the new class in dancing announced by Miss Evelyn Livingston Smith? When her season opens at the Community House Oct. 3, she will offer a class to be taught under her supervision, by Miss Mary Elizabeth Kalkenny of Detroit, with tuition at $7 for 10 lessons. By phone, Miss Smith is available at 2121-R.

Mrs. Crandell To Be Honor Guest At Tea

Mrs. Melvin C. Hart of Villa road will be hostess at a tea for 30 guests today in honor of Mrs. Charles W. Crandell, wife of the new superintendent of schools. Included among the guests will be members of the faculty of Baldwin High School, wives of members of the Board of Education, and wives of the other school principals.

Presiding at the tea table will be Miss Rachel Peterson and Miss Charlotte Wood.

Young People Will Resume Dances This Week

The first dance for young people of high school age will be held at the Community House Saturday evening at 8 P. M. according to an announcement made by the committee.

Mrs. L. M. Baker is the chairman of hostesses, assisted by Mrs. H. F. Whales, Mrs. John Moss and Mrs. James White.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fyfe, 788 Davis street, announce the birth of a daughter, Lindsey Elizabeth, on Sept. 25.

A son, Anthony Dodge Kalter, was born Sept. 25 to Mr. and Mrs. John Francis Kalter, 1235 Smith street.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baker (Elizabeth Daynes) of Maple and Lauser roads announce the birth of twin sons, Douglas Richard and Donald Dewaine, Sept. 1.

Church Groups Hold Meetings To Open New Season

Several groups active in the Methodist Church have held meetings this week. The Suzanna Wesley Group met Wednesday for luncheon at the home of Mrs. D. L. Tate of Westchesterway. Assisting Mrs. Tate as hostesses were Mrs. Harold T. Eberby, Mrs. H. J. Havermale and Mrs. Fred Faiberg.

This was the first meeting of the new season for the group, which this year will have as its leader Mrs. Tate, who will be assisted by Mrs. Eberby.

Other groups which met include the Junior World Friendship Club, at the home of Mrs. G. A. Ziegler on Madison avenue, Monday evening, and the Senior World Friendship Club, which met with Mrs. F. W. Allen of Ridgedale avenue Tuesday evening.

Mrs. H. C. Murray of Henrietta street entertained members of her group at her home Tuesday afternoon.

New Round Table To Promote World Peace

With the expressed purpose of searching "for a bridge and facilitating moving program for the abolition of war," approximately 5,000 American women are organizing this fall to follow a program known as the Marathon Round Table, instituted by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, through the National Committee on the Cause and Cure of War.

Birmingham women will be asked to aid in the movement to speed world peace through a Marathon Round Table here, which will meet at the Community House under the leadership of Mrs. Charles J. Shain.

The round table discussions will constitute the four preliminary meetings of the Class on International Relations conducted by Mrs. Shain, which will begin its eighth season at the Community House Tuesday, Oct. 4, at 10 A. M.

A dinner dance will be given Saturday evening by the Birmingham Golf Club members.

Call on us for any of these expert SERVICES

• Interior Decorating
An efficient, capable and experienced interior decorator on our staff to consult with you on any decorating problem.

• Carpet Making and Laying
If you are moving this fall, let us make over your carpets to fit the new home. Work done by skilled workmen.

• Drapery Workroom
Plan your draperies to meet your own ideas. We'll make them for you in our own workroom and hang them when finished.

• Window Shade Making
Cracked and pinholed window shades are an eyesore. Let us measure and make new Tontine washable shades for your windows.

• Linoleum Laying
Our staff of workmen includes experts in laying linoleum. There will be no bulges in your floor when we have finished.

Phone 5111 Wates Pontiac

256 WEST MAPLE AVE.
At Your Birmingham Healy Shop

New Fall Hats

$3.50

Such adorable, chic young styles! Stunning felts, clever draped turbans, tiny velvets so flattering with Fall frocks. Two styles in felt are sketched.

D. J. Healy SHOPS

Frances Regina Veit
Piano Instructor
Studio at
290 North Woodward
Telephone 641

ARE you one of those who have discovered the extravagance of cheap dresses? If so, see our exercise for the little ones, hand made to the child's individual measurements.

DRESSES
For the little girl 7 to 12

KNITTED SUITS
For boys up to 11 years old

ROMPERS for 1 and 2 year olds

Complete selection here at
337 East Maple Avenue

LUCILE MACAULEY EXCHANGE

K. MAGARAIN
1579 E. Jefferson, Detroit
Has Been Cleaning ORIENTAL RUGS
by hand for 33 years!
Exquisite Repairing by
NATIVE EXPERTS
CALL
RAndolph 1867 or B'ham 2655

PIANO Sibyl MacDonald THEORY
B.Mus., American Conservatory of Music, Chicago
TELEPHONE BIRMINGHAM 2774

The Mabel Guess Musicale Studio
935 Southfield Road—Birmingham, 1904
Crafts Guild—Detroit—111 E. Kirby—TR. 2715
Piano — Classes in Dunning — Theory
Special Technic in developing ami appreciation for the child mind.
MABEL GUESS, Mus. Bac., has studied with the late Paul Goldschmidt of Berlin, Germany, the late Oliver Denton of New York City, Jan Chiapusso of Chicago, and with Benjetson Netzorg of Detroit.
Continuous Enrollment

For the New Season!
HAND BAGS
BLACK or BROWN . . . $1.00 ENVELOPE or POUCH . . .
We nominate for the hall of Fall fashion fame this group of smart bags—Bags so good-looking that you'll be surprised that their price is only $1.00. Inside zipper compartment, mirror, richly lined . . . they have all the details of workmanship heretofore found only in more expensive bags. Subdued colors for Fall, they have self-trim.
Genuine Antelope Hand Bags - $1.95
TWIN HOSIERY SHOP
N. Woodward Avenue - Near Maple

OLSEN'S Cash Specials
FRIDAY and SATURDAY

STEWING HENS, Med. Size	18c lb.
BROILERS, Fresh Dressed	20c lb.
Large ROASTING CHICKEN	25c lb.
Linden's CREAMERY BUTTER	29c lb.
Cut WAX or GREEN BEANS, Put up by Reid Murdock	2 cans 19c
Garden ASPARAGUS, No. 2 can	26c
MONARCH FOOD of WHEAT, Try it and save the difference.	14c
Clean Quick SOAP CHIPS	5-lb. pkg. 23c
LINEN SOAP FLAKE	12c or 2 for 23c
P. and G. SOAP	10 bars for 31c
DEFIANCE PASTRY FLOUR, 24½ lb. sack	44c
CHARMIN TOILET TISSUE	3 rolls for 19c
MONARCH COFFEE	3 lbs. for 95c

FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES DAILY
OLSEN'S MARKET
120 S. WOODWARD PHONE 648
8 Deliveries Daily
"A Market Devoted to the Community It Serves"