Couple Speak Vows At Home Ceremony

At a pretty home wedding Wednesday evening, Aug. 31, Miss Bertha Brooks, daughter of Mrs. William Brooks of Big Beaver road, became the bride of Ivan Ward Parks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Parks of Merrill street. The ceremony took place before an altar of palms at 8 o'clock, with Rev. W. Clarence Wright, officiating.

The bride wore a charming princess gown of ivory satin and a sweeping tulle veil, held in place by a tulle cap banded with orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of ivory roses, tuber lilies and gardenias tied with wide ivory satin ribbon.

Miss Alta Parks, sister of the groom, attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a long, fitted gown of blue crepe and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Stanley Brooks, brother of the bride, assisted Mr. Parks as best man.

Following the wedding reception for 25 guests, including members of the family from Pontiac, Royal Oak, Birmingham, and Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Parks left for a motor trip through the eastern states. On their return they will make their home on Ann street.

Autumn Flower Show To Be Event Of Sept. 17

The annual fall flower show of the Bloomfield Hills and District Horticultura Society will be held at the Community House this year Saturday, Sept. 17. The exhibit will include fruits and vegetables as well as late summer blooms with 15 open classes for non-members.

In place of the usual cash prizes, ribbons will be given this year to reward the winners. At the close of the show exhibits of fruit and vegetables will be donated to the Community House to aid in its welfare work among needy families.

An innovation this year will be separate judging of fruits and vegetables and flowers. Two judges will make decisions for the flower exhibits, and two for fruits and vegetables.

An additional floral feature will be the gift of 500 gladioli blooms from an Indiana firm of growers.

Further plans for the show will be made at a meeting of the Society this evening in the Community House at 7:30 P. M.

Mr. And Mrs. Birmingham Spend Labor Day At Clubs

In spite of weather that varied from cool to warm and from almost dry to exceedingly moist atmospheric conditions, over the week-end and Labor day, numerous country clubs in the neighborhood welcomed many guests from Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills.

For many, the country club offers a pleasant change for the holiday guest, for others it offers a community home to gather with their friends for the dinner dance, and still others find it ideal for family reunions.

Such were the various cases over the week-end just past in the many delightful clubs within a stone's throw of the village and the Hills. Many families appeared at their respective clubs, from the youngest to the eldest member, ready to enjoy the programs prepared to entertain all ages.

At Oakland Hills and at Orchard and Pine Lake Country Clubs there were special programs for the children including novel features of games and hunts, magicians and free ice cream. At Oakland Hills there was the usual dinner dance for juniors preceding the regular dinner hour.

Among those noted Monday evening at Oakland Hills were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. DeVisser, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold C. Shoop, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar C. Coombs, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Schmitt, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sheridan, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Grimm, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wheler, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Raquet and Mr. and Mrs. A. Cogsdill.

The Birmingham Golf Club held its week-end dinner dance Saturday, with many from the village present including Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brigham, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill C. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kent, Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Smith, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Wolf and Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Walker. Mr. and Mrs. John R. [illegible], Mr. and Mrs. Don [illegible] and Mrs. Gladys Stump.

The dinner dance at the Orchard Lake Country Club preceded the Labor day program, taking place Saturday evening.

Among those from Birmingham noted in the dining room and on the dance floor were Mr. and Mrs. Hans [illegible] Paterni, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Joslyn, Mr. and Mrs. James Stock, Miss Frances Murray with several guests, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grinalds and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Bushnell, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. George Wiley, and Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Wurster were members of a party of 20, including guests from Detroit, at the Pine Lake Country Club Saturday evening.

Several family groups were seen dining at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club Saturday evening among those noted were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stone with Mrs. [illegible] Mrs. Ralph Stone, Jr., Mrs. and Mrs. Otto Kern, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Sterling and their daughter, Mrs. Ruth Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Smith Bird, Mrs. Harry Kinsel with her daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Downes and Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoffman, and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Topping in a party.

Later, at the dance many of the younger set in the Hills were seen with their guests in large and small groups. The Misses Mary Louise and Virginia Hoit were noted with their guests as were Miss Frances Morley, Miss Janette Bragaw, Miss Jane Bigelow and Miss Josephine Taliaferro.

Naval Officer Guest At Dinner For Family
