

LAWSON RAPS TAX EXPERTS

WE HEARD IT SAID BY... Lister D. Allen, president of Bloomfield Hills village...

State Senator Ridicules Opponents in Campaign Speech

"In this campaign, there are two primary issues. The first is taxation, and second is a job for those persons who have no work..."

of this county to the fact that we are spending too much money. Did either of my opponents, in the county, tax experts ever point out the evils of tremendous real estate speculation to you?"

He cited his track record in the Legislature, especially in relation to his efforts toward bringing a court of the weight tax to the counties, toward reducing the state budget...

"I wonder why, 10 years ago, he asked, 'one of my tax expert opponents did not point out, in great wisdom upon taxation, the evils of Oakland County...'"

Major Roy K. Carson... Entering the race for the Republican nomination for Congress from the 17th District of Michigan...

"I am a native of Michigan, 43 years old. Educated in Michigan and the United States Naval Academy. I equipped myself to train boys for naval, military and engineering service when accident disqualified me from service."

"I seek election to Congress because I believe my knowledge of the machinery of government will help me to serve my neighbors and constantly relieve them of some of the burdens of taxation and help to create through government projects, work for hundreds of thousands who want work rather than charity."

"I believe Congress can cut government expenses by a large percentage if its members start with themselves, their families and their own government's payroll, extravagantly eating up our tax money. A readjustment of tariffs with less thought of hurting the delicate feelings of so-called banking and financial leaders will react to increase employment and prosperity."

"I believe whiskey is essential as medicine, and when prescribed by physicians should be possible to obtain without breaking the law. I believe beer and wine are harmless when used moderately and, since a majority want them, they should buy them legally and add to the government's revenues."
