Be A Vigilant Voter

ver this free people—if this government is ever utterly demoralized, it will come this incessant human wriggle and struggle free, which is but a way to live without ou know who said that? None other than be braham Lincella who, though a holder of pube himself, was on so high a plane of service lelevated mere politics to stategmanship. It is good to remember Lincoln words in thesen, as we near national, state, and county, dozen; and even hundreds of candidates a your vote.

'F. D." Is Not "T. R."

"F Di" Is Not "T. R."

In nominating Franklin D. Rouevell, the Democratic party pixed a real barrier between themselves and an immediate four-year lease on the White House. For Gostrone Rouevell, when placed against the background of the family name that really has carried him thus far, in easily seen in his true light, i. c. it the mere shadow of "T. R." New York? Governas, good as he may be, is as yet, to most serjeus Americans, incompetent to handle the Presidency.

Presidency:

Who Says No Civic Spirit?

The goof folk of the Villege who amoully lend their services to the election bards have done it free this great, and thereby save the rest of us about $250, says Village Clerk Irene Hanley.

In foomer years members of the election beards you from fifty to seventy-five cents an hour for their wink, as well as their meals and effreshments at night at the close of the voting. And that set the tack years back. This year they are not only foregoing the salato.

The members of the election boards are to be congrarulated and thanked. Who says we haven't give the process of the election boards are to be congrarulated and thanked. Who says we haven't give the said of the election boards are to be congrarulated and thanked. Who says we haven't give the spirit in Brimingham?

Rise Up, Ye People!"

Rise Up, Ye People!"

Our American form of government, allowing each citizen a voice in public affairs, has endired many human struggles—it has denerged with sarying degrees of success in keeping with the amonitor of INTERIST ID INTELLIGINCE, manifested by its people. Sight now our chaptury is engaged in perpetuating pepular government with too much DISINTEREST ID AVAITIV's oil is people. So government, of other form of human activity, his be sustained without intelligently directed effort. Unless people in high places in the United Starts evidence more undistributions and a higher type of leadership, they will be consumed by the stampeding herd of voters who have come to mistick bullyhoof rability, promised for performance, and corraption for characters.

GOVERNOR FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, Democratic hominees for the Presidency, will jump around the United State in ten or Ja dozen big talks, his managers say. Well, the Governor ought to set some new jumping tecords—since he has shown that he can do a lot of jumping around without even leaving dallans.

WONDER IF WOMEN in general will of their sex are capable of being or days at a time,

IF ANY OF YOUR grandchildren ever ask who was America's most unpopulat man during the early 1930's, just tell 'em his name was Hy Taxes.

An uncompleted million-dollar hotel in Miami, Florida, is being turned into a huge poultry raising plant. We wonder why they didn't just turn it into what it as a an aquarum for fish.
